In years past, students often found time for leisure and a friendly chat with each other before beginning the school day's usual activities.

Early morning college classes draw a select calibre of seniors to school hours before the arrival of their classmates.

This Austin Boulevard entrance becomes crowded with students as the 8:25 bell rings, indicating the start of another day.

Walking to school with friends prompts the discussion of current school activities.

Old Customs Still Thrive While New Faces Appear

For more than fifty years new faces, places, and things have replaced the old at JSM. Unchanging from year to year, however, is the enjoyment of typical daily activities. The lazy walks on clear, sunny mornings and the hurried walks on brisk autumn days never lose their charm and appeal. In the company of friends, the conversation turns to the current activities and events and the students excitedly discuss the "happenings" that will make this day more fascinating than the one before.

Dear Harry -
 Had a blast xmas
 year in study
 with you, sorry
 I can't see you
 next year,
 God Bless you,
 Congratulations
 Dan Vain

Besides observing the beautiful flowers and plants in the East greenhouse, students gain knowledge about the biological properties of each.

At certain times, a little relaxation goes a long way.

During a class break, students gather for a quick, refreshing drink.

Hallways are darkened as the bell rings and students prepare to leave.

Determined and conscientious students are often absorbed in deep thought.

Students Develop Potential In Academics, Personality

*The spirit of learning is alive at Morton.
Both students and faculty strive for a more complete interpretation of education.*

This year classroom study was supplemented by class sessions held in the greenhouse, chem lab, and in places which offered direct experience to the student.

Spare moments were well spent in the library in an atmosphere that lent itself to complete relaxation and undisturbed concentration.

Time-honored traditions such as celebrating birthdays

have remained throughout the fifty years as evidence of the congeniality at Morton.

As each day passes students progress imperceptibly into new aspects of learning.

A Week of School Spirit As "Fantasia" Commences

Characters out of fairy tales dominated Homecoming Week as "Fantasia" invaded Morton.

A ball-decorating contest and a kick-off mixer began a week of excitement and spirit.

A pep rally complete with cheerleaders, football team, and nominees roused the spirit of Morton students.

Saturday's parade, following a new parade route, was led by the parade marshall and Mary Tejcek, Chairman of the Homecoming Committee.

Christmas Motif Reflected In Hall-Decorating Contest

Dropping temperatures and snowy streets characterize the season of warmth and good will at Morton. As students plan holiday activities and decorate the school in seasonal motif, the Christmas spirit takes on a special significance. Santa Clauses and candy canes are seen in hallway after hallway decorated in the hall-decorating contest. A fireplace and a candle-lit chandelier ornament the Christmas dance, signifying a theme of an old Christmas. Christmas spirit glows in the faces of the students.

Disc Jockeys Participate In Benefit Basketball Game

Wild and nutty Barney Pip of WCFL, sly and witty Clark Weber of WLS, and suave and quick-lipped Larry Lujack of WLS were among the local disc jockeys who threatened the strength of Morton's faculty team at its first benefit basketball game. Though composed of popular personalities well-known for their vocal strength, the visiting team was unable to defeat the faculty, who emerged exhausted but victorious. MSGA's Exchange Committee sponsored the game to gain funds for the wounded servicemen at Great Lakes Naval Hospital. The money provided entertainment for the disabled soldiers throughout the year. Seguin Training Center and St. Vincent's Orphanage also shared in the profits.

Funny Girl, School Musical, Is Outstanding Success

Busy telephones buzz in a scene from Bye Bye Birdie, the school musical of 1962.

A glitter and sparkle production starring vivacious Charlotte Luporini headed the parade of plays, presented by Morton's Speech Arts Department. The combined drama departments of East, West, and the junior college enacted the heartwarming Broadway play Funny Girl for audiences of standing room only. Scenery included a red-lighted stairway and an illuminated curtain. The costume crew designed all costumes for the play, and Barb Adamski choreographed the music. Eight professional musicians supplemented the school band and helped in making the play a $12,000 success. A Thousand Clowns, presented last spring, was another accomplishment aimed at developing public speaking ability and character portrayal.

A Wish Upon a Dream Comes True at '67 Prom

In the midst of angel hair, rose garlands, and a beautiful wishing well in which couples tossed pennies for good luck, a "Wish Upon a Dream" came true. Formally attired couples danced to music by Andy Powell and his Orchestra. Between numbers they snacked on cokes and cookies provided by Junior Cabinet, sponsors of the prom. Upon entering the ballroom, the girls received a miniature wishing well bid and a tiny silver charm as mementos of the occasion. Parents of the cabinet members and faculty advisers chaperoned the dance and watched as the couples enjoyed an evening that will hold cherished memories in the future.

Hapac Memorial Gymnasium serves as the boys' gym and as the home court for three thousand spectators at the basketball games.

Physical Education Annex Adds Needed Facilities

Ten acres of physical education facilities adjoined the East building as the complex became part of a well-needed improvement in Morton's athletic program. The George S. Fencil Field and the William Hapac Memorial Gymnasium provide greater opportunities for baseball and basketball participants. Astro-turf covers the ground of a one-tenth mile indoor track. The Olympic-size pool, long-awaited by swimming enthusiasts, is considered one of the finest in the area. Wrestlers enjoy individual competition in the new wrestling room, also a multi-purpose room for gymnasts. Five new well-equipped classrooms are used for health classes. Driver education facilities in the annex include twelve new simulators. The five and a half million dollar edifice, with its impressively sparkling appearance and improved facilities, is a welcome supplement to Morton East.

the school was centered on 24th Street and Austin

Fashion Trends Observed During Fifty-Year Span

*Fashions are ever changing.
Teenagers, a fickle faction,
accept and reject fashions according to fads.
Teens of the Roaring Twenties found long skirts and knickers attractive, while those of the Thirties adopted waistcoats on the boys and tightly-waved hair on the girls.
The 1940's brought drastic fashion changes.
Skirts hit just below the knees,
and wide lapels ornamented boys' suits.
Bobby sox and oxfords characterized the Fifties, and mini-skirted girls and long-haired boys have hit the Sixties.
Morton students, always up with the fashions, combine practicality with comfort in displaying a smart and attractive look in the world of fashions.*

Mr. Panza, Students Spend Easter in Romantic Italy

Easter vacation for fifty-three students and four faculty advisers was spent touring beautiful Italy.

Mr. Albert Panza, Italian teacher at Morton, sponsored, chaperoned, and organized the tour of historic and biblical sights. Stopping first in Pisa, the tourists arrived on Holy Saturday.

They spent Easter Sunday at the Mediterranean resort, Viareggio, and travelled the next day to Rome.

Trevi Fountain, the Vatican Museum, and an audience with Pope Paul VI highlighted the tour through Rome.

On to Assisi, the Morton students visited St. Francis' Shrine.

In Florence they viewed Michelangelo's works and visited the Baptistry, Giotto's Belfry, the Medici chapels and Uffizi Gallery.

Transferring to Milan Airport, the tourists prepared to leave the city to return with memories of beautiful and scenic Italy.

Attendance Rolls Expand; Adults Travel to Europe

Eager, ambitious teens and adults improve their intellectual capacities outside of high school hours in the summer and evening school sessions. During the past year, attendance in both has risen considerably. Whether attending classes for enrichment or for acquiring needed credits, students gain a valuable education in both institutions.

Evening students visited Czechoslovakia on a trip to Europe sponsored by the school. Promoting adult interest in foreign affairs was the purpose of the trip. Assemblies in summer school, featuring student talent, provided a refreshing aspect of learning in addition to the standard mode of education.

Morton Faculty Shows Increase In Ability, Number of Members

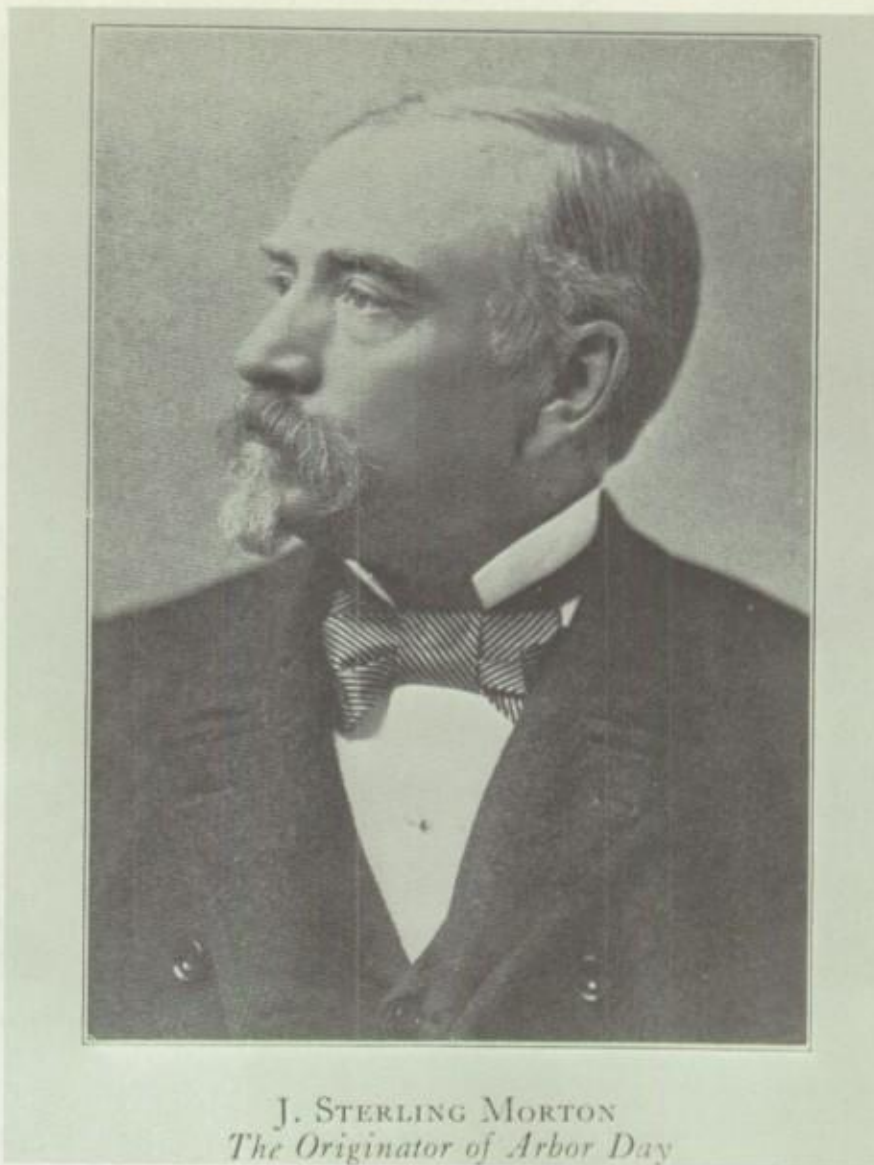

Morton is supplemented with an excellent staff of faculty members. Fifty years growth has seen the high school teaching personnel spring from a handful to approximately four-hundred in both the East and West schools. This increase has tremendously increased the flexibility and diversification in curricula. Teachers from all over the country and many alumni of Morton now offer their services to the student body.

An outstanding trait of Morton's present faculty, as was true of past faculties, is the offering of their full capabilities to the student. They strive for the satisfaction of knowing that they have penetrated the gap between teacher and pupil. Proper communication has always been an important objective in education; therefore, the teacher always tries to develop his methods so as to minimize confusion and maximize the learning process.

Modern Classroom Techniques Encourage Independent Thinking

In the past half-century, Morton has made many improvements with regard to teaching techniques. The days when the textbook itself was the entire scope of the course are gone. Active experimentation with small groups and with individualized instruction has been found to not only challenge the student but also to encourage independent thinking, which is so important in the world today.

These innovations, along with a more competently prepared faculty, are appealing to the student. Laying down the book and actually doing the experiment or proving a law is a better method of learning because it allows the student to draw his own conclusions rather than read them out of a book. Another move toward better education was Morton's instituting of the "team-teaching" program, which exposes the student to the views and presentations of a number of teachers.

A supervised experiment is carried out in the chemistry laboratory, where a student can develop a scientific method of thinking.

The first cooking classes at Morton, under the instruction of Mrs. E. Roberts, had an enrollment of sixty girls, most of whom were underclassmen.

These girls learn fundamental ideas in sewing and dress design.

New Facility Officially Dedicated; EMH-OP Program Is Organized

Because of the creation of a new board for Morton Junior College, the present high school Board of Education is now better able to concentrate fully on the matters concerning only the high school. The board has been especially busy in matters of the new Morton physical education plant. The official dedication of the plant was held on February 7 with Mr. Albert Willis, executive secretary of the IHSA, as the guest speaker. The gym had earlier been officially named the William J. Hapac Memorial Gymnasium in honor of the late basketball mentor; the outdoor athletic field was named the George S. Fencil Field in honor of the retired athletics director. The library has now been officially designated as the Harry V. Church Memorial Library.

Morton has also begun to broaden its special education program. A large district, which includes Morton, Oak Park-River Forest, and other neighboring schools, has been created. These schools have come together and have formed a co-operative system in which ideas are shared and discussed to better the existing program. Morton has also begun a pilot program called EMH-OP to increase the effectiveness of teacher-student communication. These programs have been cited by the North Central Association and will serve as models for similar experimental programs in other schools.

Dr. Cooper Leaves Morton Post; Concludes Fifteen Years' Service

Ending fifteen years of admirable service to the Morton school system, Superintendent of Schools Dr. Walter L. Cooper has retired. Coming to the system in 1953, Dr. Cooper held the position as the first principal of the school. In 1958 he became assistant superintendent, rising to superintendent and president of the junior college the following year, and has served these posts efficiently to the present.

His education includes a Bachelor's degree in mathematics at Central Missouri State. He received his Master's degree in education and his Doctorate in Educational Administration at Missouri University. Since 1929 Dr. Cooper, who began teaching in Missouri high schools, has had a fine record of teaching experience. Soon after he took on the principalship in various high schools around the country.

During his career in education, he has participated actively in local, state, and national organizations. Just citing some of his activities while living in Illinois, he has served as the president of the Rotary Club, president of Cicero Safety Council, president of the Berwyn Community Chest, and a member of the Junior Achievement board since its formation. He has been a member of the North Central Association for 25 years; in 1961 he became chairman of the N.C.A.'s Research and Service Commission.

Follow-Up Offers Valuable Data; Psychologist to Aid Counselors

Several new ideas have been initiated in the Guidance Department this year, one being a follow-up study of this year's graduating class. Two counselors are keeping records on the classes, teachers, and grades of this year's seniors. The program will then follow them in college and then on into a vocation. After this has been done for several graduating classes, comparisons can be made which could possibly help the high school students in their choice of subjects or vocation. The counseling staff is also working on a better handbook for entering freshmen.

Once a week, Morton will have the services of a consulting psychologist who will review problem cases with the guidance staff to help the counselors in reaching conclusions about their counselees.

New Biology Financed by State; Computers into Math Curriculum

According to Mr. F. A. Janeczek, the new division head of math and science, both the Math and Science Departments were supplemented by two courses each. "Introductory Algebra" is a new two-year course designed to give a better understanding of general math and algebra. A program in "Computer Oriented Mathematics" has also been initiated into the curriculum as a minor offered to those having at least one semester of advanced algebra. The course puts emphasis on the solving of equations by use of computers.

New courses in the Science Department include "Introductory Physical Science" and "Independent Study Biology". The latter course is experimental and is financed by the State of Illinois, to which periodic progress reports must be made.

Band Students to Tour Europe; New Facilities for Photography

In recognition of the achievements of two students, the Morton Music Department has received high honors. Dan Busta and Bill Camphouse were among those chosen from over 5300 applicants in Illinois to travel to Europe this summer on the merits of their musical ability. According to Mr. R. J. Dvorak, division head of Fine Arts, these students will take a two week music tour of France. This entire program is directed by the Illinois Music Educators' Association.

In the art department, Morton photographic facilities have been expanded. A new dark room was constructed in room 159 to handle a greater volume of photography students. Also, there will be a significant expansion of the slide program in art to put more emphasis on art appreciation and history.

Department Test Format Revised; New Language Facilities Opened

Linguistics, the scientific study of a language, has been rapidly gaining the interest of the Language Arts Division. Many future English tests will be linguistically oriented. The present format of the departmental test has undergone minor changes this year. It is hoped that a standardized test can soon be offered to seniors so that they can be compared to school and national norms.

Language Arts facilities have increased this year; for instance, the Dramatics Department facilities have been more than doubled here at the East building, where the drama groups now use the auditorium stage. Plans are being discussed for a new language laboratory, as the old one, which has been in operation for ten years, has become obsolete. Possibilities for a new lab include the use of wireless units which would be portable, versatile, and less expensive than a permanent set-up.

Semi-No Fine System Established; Gives Students More Initiative

Library policy concerning overdue book fines has undergone revision this year. The old "two cents per day overdue" rules have been shelved, and in their place a semi-no fine system has been instituted. Under this system, no fines are levied for moderately overdue books. However, once a month a notice is sent to the Dean's Office with a list of the overdue books and their respective borrowers. A student on this list must then pay a fifty-cent service charge at the end of the month. The adopted system has worked quite satisfactorily through the year.

Mr. Spicer also related that a micro-film program is in future plans for the high school library. It is presently in effect in the JC library and provides an economical and space-saving means of keeping records and increasing the volume of available reference material.

Experimental Course Is Formed; Problems and Solutions Discussed

Psychology-Sociology has been introduced as an experimental course in the Social Science Department this year. The course meets every day for two hours. Under the guidance of Mr. Everett and Mr. Landi, the class holds very informative discussions on the social problems facing us and possible solutions. Students are allowed to evaluate their own work and grade themselves accordingly. Every Thursday, the class travels to the Chicago State Mental Hospital. Mr. T. J. Reidy, who taught high school economics during the first semester, was shifted to the junior college, where he taught economics during the second semester. Also, Mr. Fred Arnold joined the division this year after spending two years in the Peace Corps, stationed in Malaysia.

Machine Shops Are Re-equipped; Shop Safety Committee Formed

Safety, especially the personal safety of each student, is a primary concern in any shop course. For this reason, the department has organized a vocational and industrial safety committee, which makes periodic checks in all shops to insure maximum safety conditions.

A big factor in safety is the condition of the machinery in use. The shops in the Industrial Education Department have been undergoing constant overhaul, being re-equipped with the latest machinery. Several power instruments have been added to room 112 and the auto mechanics shop has received various-sized engines to be worked on by the students.

New Facilities Enhance Program; Handball Introduced as PE Class

Marked improvements have come to the physical education program due to the new facilities. Mr. Jahelka, director of the department, related that the program scheduled for this year was disrupted because the gymnasium parts of the Annex were not ready by the beginning of the school year; however, Morton now has one of the best physical education programs in the country.

According to the new PE plan, the year is divided into four-week segments. At the end of such a time period, each class will focus its attention on a new sport, so that by the end of the year, this rotational pattern will have given the student experience in basketball, volleyball, gymnastics, swimming, weight training, softball, football, and handball, a new addition to the program. Upon completion of the field house an extended program will be offered, including golf, tennis, badminton, and archery.

New Course Popular With Girls; Home Economics Club is Formed

"Child Care and Development" is the name of a new one-semester course offered by the Home Economics Department to sophomore, junior, and senior girls. Formerly, the course was known as Homemaking I, and was a full year course. It was condensed into one semester with the emphasis on child care. Taught by Mrs. Stabler and Mrs. Reynolds, the class will have frequent outside speakers on the subject and take several trips, one being a trip to NIU to see the child care facilities there. The popularity of this class was surprising as the enrollment made it necessary to form three classes.

A home economics club has also been formed this year. "ECHO" is opened to all girls, and is supervised by Mrs. Reynolds and Miss Kociara.

Mrs. Horowitz, teacher in the Special Education Department, offers some individual attention to one of her pupils.

Dr. Alvarez, world famous doctor from the Mayo Clinic and an authority on smoking, was the guest of Morton this year, heading a forum discussion on the question of smoking. Six students who were non-smokers and six who did use tobacco gathered and discussed their views on smoking in earnest with Dr. Alvarez. The entire discussion was taped and a copy sent to Washington. In the near future the tape is to be played over radio.

New advances have also been made in the Health Service Department. Mrs. Nicholson took a course in the use of specialized equipment to test hearing ability and is certified to use such equipment. Morton has purchased several new audiometers used in testing for hearing defects. These instruments are far superior to those previously in use. Such forward progress in the modernization of health facilities is one of the reasons that the Health Service Department received a very fine rating from the North Central Association.

Also doing a fine job are the staffs of the Maintenance Department and the Cafeteria. The Maintenance Department has been extremely busy the past year. The new Annex has required constant attention in its first year of actual use, and the department has contributed a great deal to the small jobs left incomplete during construction.

Far beyond fifty years ago, sports have always been the foundation of school spirit. They bolster the morale of followers and provide an active and desirable "extra" in high school life.

Sports

Team sports are valuable for building self confidence, improving cooperation, and developing the ideals of sportsmanship.

Competitive Sports Play Vital Role In Advancement of School Spirit

Sports play a vital role in stimulating school spirit. They bolster the morale of followers and provide an active and a desirable "extra" in high-school life for spectators. The greatest impact, however, has always been on the individual athlete.

Athletics gives him a great feeling of pride to know that he can be a member of such an efficient organization as an athletic team. He also is under the pressure of increased responsibility when working with his team fighting for success. The athlete knows he must do his best to succeed. He gives his all during practice, and at the game, the athlete performs to the limits of his ability.

Active competition has a lasting effect on those who honestly strive to achieve athletic success.

Morton's determined football teams have given many JSM students an opportunity to test their skills against rough competition on the gridiron.

Boxing, Heavyweight Basketball Drop Out of Athletic Program

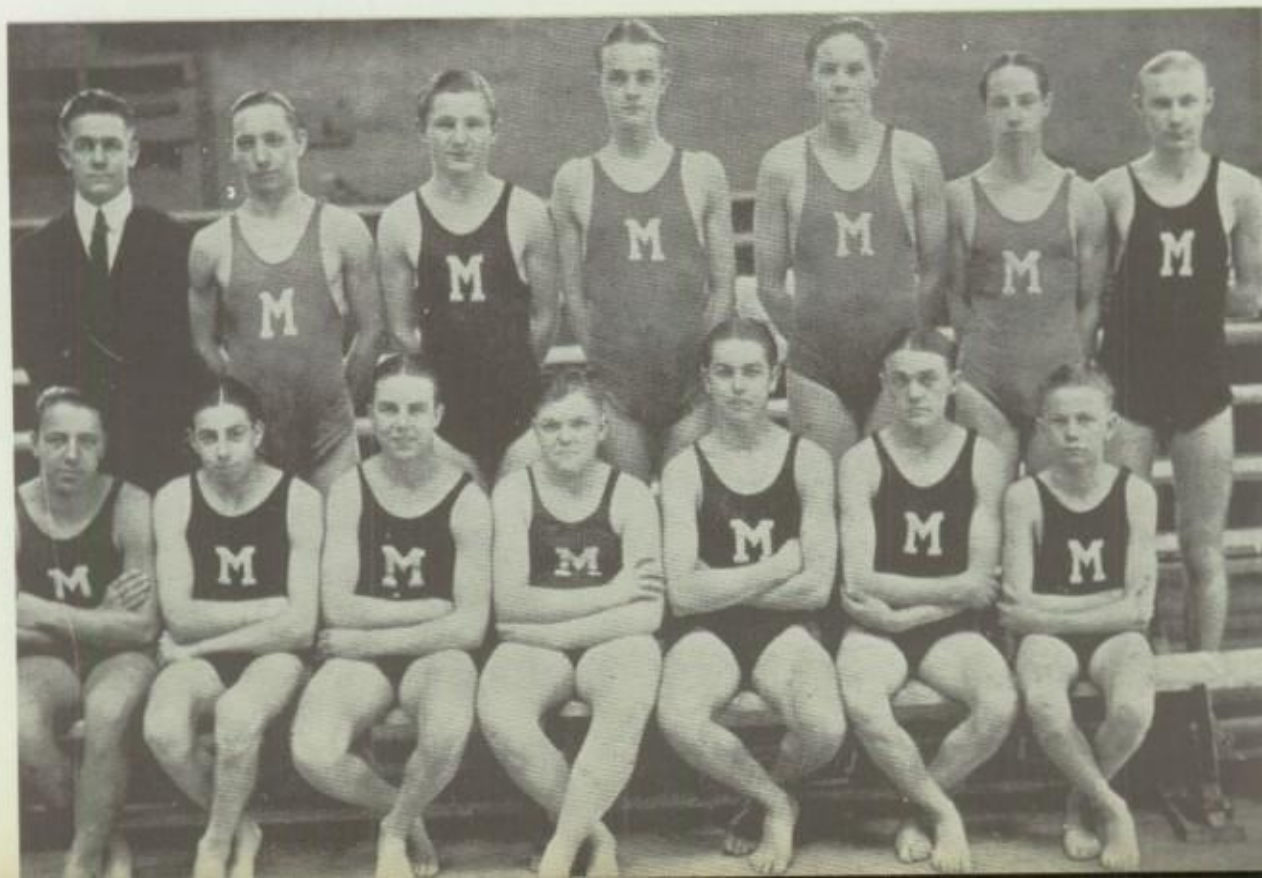

Athletics is more than just fun. It helps to build strength and coordination, bolster one's confidence, and teach one how to both win and lose gracefully. Morton has developed one of the finest athletic programs possible. Each year a student is eligible to compete in one of the many sports offered.

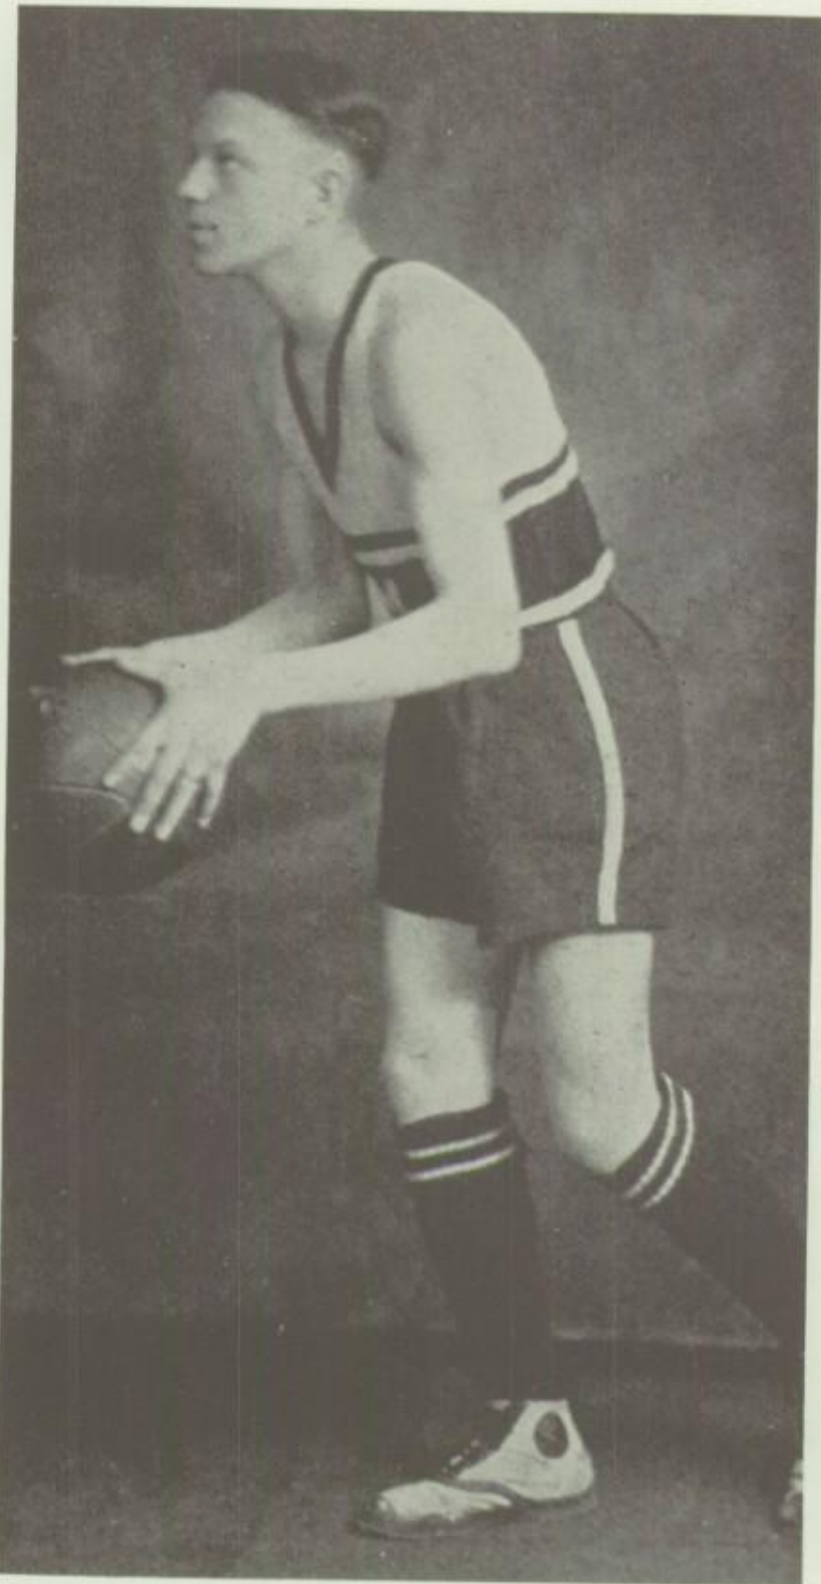

Although most of the sports in which Morton has participated during the last fifty years are still popular ones, boxing and heavyweight basketball have dropped out of existence due to lack of interest. The many different sports in which Morton East students have an opportunity to excel offer them ways of learning to work together and improve their physical well being.

Although Morton has always performed exceptionally well in boxing, lack of interscholastic competition has caused interest in the sport to dwindle.

Through active competition Morton has built a reputation of good team sportsmanship.

Determination and leadership are keynotes to a Mustang victory.
The members of the heavyweight basketball team follow the fine example set by their captains.

Morton has always been represented by fine athletes on her varsity tennis teams.

Lack of Depth in Key Positions Causes Mustang Batsmen to Fall

For the Morton varsity baseball squad this year, the season was over before it started. The Mustangs ended with only four wins in fifteen games. The previous year the squad finished with a 3-10 Suburban League record, but many observers hoped that the host of returning lettermen plus the highly regarded junior talent would put Coach H. L. Salberg's varsity into contention for the league crown. However, injuries, pitching, and hitting slumps proved pre-season optimists to be wrong.

The biggest injury to hit the Mustangs was the one sustained by left fielder Bob Bostrom. Bob tore ligaments in his arm while attempting to make a shoe-string catch. Before the accident, Bostrom was leading the team in batting. Aside from the injuries, Morton pitching was not up to par. Lack of depth in key positions also detracted from the team's performance.

Siemianowski Spearheads Sophs; Colts Finish Season in Third

Under the guidance of Coach D. W. Peterson, the Morton East sophomore baseball team concluded the season with a respectable record of ten victories against three defeats. Tom Kratochvil, Ken Kral, Joe Siemianowski, and Bob Andreas led the Ponies' hitting attack. Joe Siemianowski and Gary Kozak were the mainstays of the pitching staff. Siemianowski tossed eight victories with two losses, and Kozak owned a two-one record, pitching in nightcaps of doubleheaders.

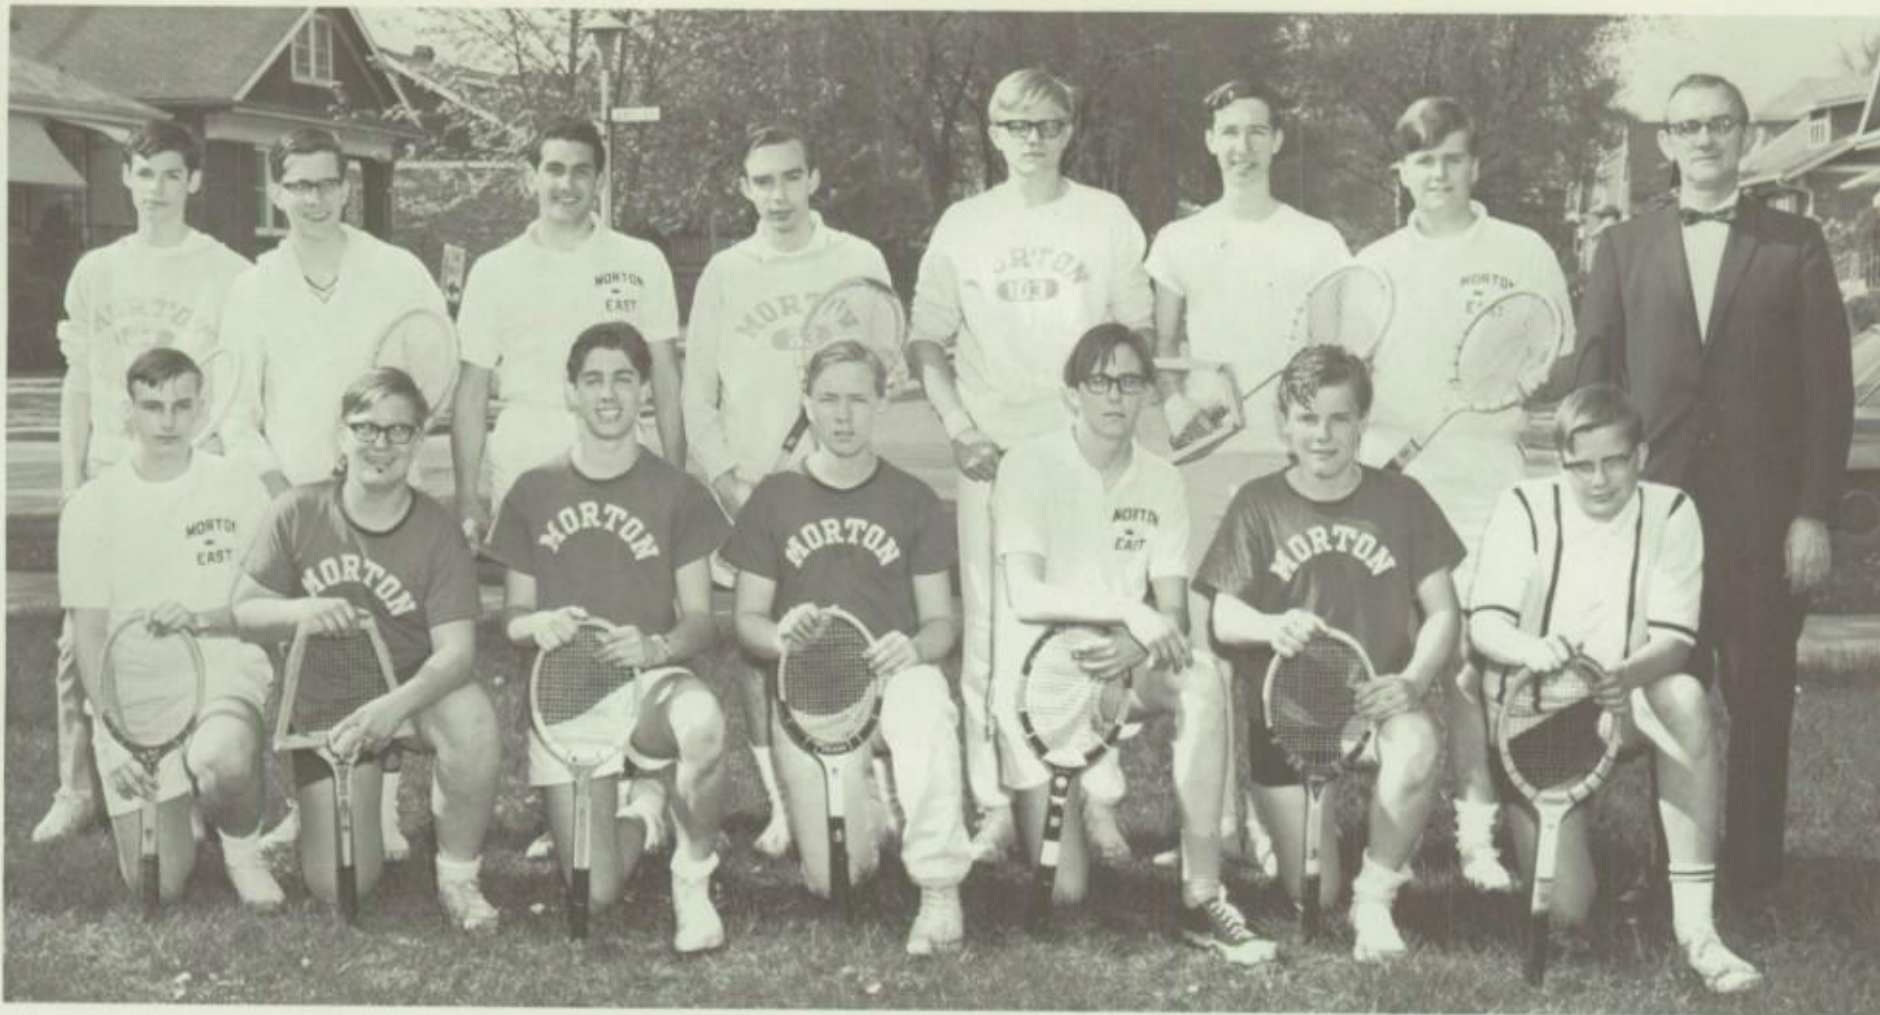

The freshman baseball team of Morton also enjoyed a fine season under the coaching of Mr. W. H. Johnson. They captured third place in the tight race for the first position in the Suburban League and had an overall record of eight victories and five losses.

Netmen Suffer Through Season; Scala, Lupinek Show Potential

Morton's netmen finished the Suburban League season with a gloomy record of no wins and seven defeats. No community interest seemed to be one of the main reasons for the poor showing; according to Coach W. R. Phillips, varsity and sophomore tennis coach. Mr. Phillips believes that one of the reasons for this is that Morton and the Cicero-Berwyn area do not support tennis programs, which are carefully set up in the other Suburban League schools. He also commented that there are no courts for the boys to continually practice on.

Coach Philips had much praise for senior netters Frank Sala and Hal Lupinek. He said that with practice and competition, these boys could compete successfully against the best in the Suburban League. On the sophomore level, Wayne Miller, John Novotny, and Frank Zematis played exceptionally well, according to Coach Phillips, and it is hoped that these three athletes will provide the nucleus for an improved tennis squad during the next two years.

Golf Lettermen Save S.L. Season As Linksters Finish in Fourth

Coach William Hedtke's varsity golf team made a fine showing this year as they finished in fourth place with a record of three wins and four losses in the final Suburban League standings. The fact that the varsity squad was without a victory last year was discouraging, but the team's returning lettermen helped to make it a winning season with an overall record of seven wins and four defeats, the finest showing in many years for the linksters.

Senior lettermen on the team were James Kowalczyk, Joe Ligler, Dave Harazin, and Jim Frost. Juniors who had had previous experience in league competition were Bernard Smaizys and Mike Baich. According to Coach Hedtke, "The team's main problem was the lack of a unified effort." Most of the boys were capable of shooting nine-hole games in the high thirties and low forties, but seldom did they simultaneously play up to their own abilities and combine for a good team score.

On the frosh-soph level, Coach William Stern's team had an unimpressive season with a last place finish in the Suburban League. This was mainly because of a lack of experience. Although the team had a poor record, Coach Stern had much praise for sophomore linksters Jim Blahut and Bob Novak.

Varsity Trackmen Finish in Last; Seventh-Place Finish for Sophs

The Morton cindermen, guided by head coach D. W. Ritchie and assistant coach J. G. Steinmetz, had a disappointing year. They finished last in the S.L., only managing to win two points in the league meet. Even though the Mustangs were low in standings, they did not lack individual stars. According to Coach Ritchie, Tony and Carl Ruzicka, along with Jim Mucha and Bill Stefanelli, did fine jobs in their individual track events. Wally Sirovy, Lee Michnewicz, Joe Smetana, and Brian Amendala led the way in the field events.

On the sophomore level, the tracksters faired only one position higher than that of the varsity. Coming in seventh, the highlight of the season came when the Ponies crushed Niles East 109-17. Leading the romp over the Trojans, sophomores Joe Vascik, Leo Jasko, and Bill Marmon set the pace in two events. Vascik ran the high hurdles in 19.3 seconds and leaped 5'4" in the high jump, gaining his pair of gold medals. Marmon gained his medals in the 880-yard run and in the broad jump. Jasko shotputted 30'7 1/2" and threw the discus 105'9 1/4", capturing those two events. Other Pony winners were Tom Schraw, whose 26.6 in the 200-yard run gave him a victory. Also Brian Amendala won the pole vault, with a 10-foot spring, and Dave Ulansen won the mile run.

Vohaska Coaches Last Season; Mustangs Win Homecoming Game

Finishing his last year as head coach of the Morton East varsity football team, Coach Bill Vohaska left the gridiron in good spirits, for he had done a commendable job of directing his squad through a winning season.

One of the biggest wins for the Mustangs was their 27-13 homecoming victory. The combined efforts of Morton quarterbacks Andy Strompolos and John Nesladek won the game for Morton against Niles East. This was Morton's first homecoming win since it defeated Oak Park by a score of 12-0 in 1961. In the last game of the Suburban League season, the Mustangs made a fine showing with a win over highly rated Proviso East, 27-0. Ron Nykiel, Andy Strompolos and Rich Gervasio were outstanding in the last game, as well as during the entire season. Greg Gron and co-captains Strompolos and Nykiel were chosen as members of the 1967 Suburban League All-Star football squad, with Mustangs Otto Brejla, Rich Gervasio, and Robert Myczek gaining honorable mention.

Ponies Finish Winless, Tieless; Colts End Sixth with Three Wins

Coach M. Serbick's Ponies had an unsuccessful year as they ended their season with a winless, tieless record of 0-7. They finished with only 19 points while their opposition scored 273. Lack of speed crippled the team greatly, and the shortage of knowledge on basic fundamentals also hindered the squad.

Coach Serbick stated, "Our squad needed extra practice because the other communities have grade school football. This teaches the boys the basic principles early and leaves more time for more difficult assignments."

The freshman A team of Coach J. R. Sime and the freshman B team of Coach D. Musil had records of 3-4 and 1-5-1 respectively. The A squad beat Oak Park 12-8, Proviso 8-0, Niles East 20-0. On the B level, Coach Musil's squad beat Proviso 12-6 and tied Highland Park 7-7. Bob Bianco, Dennis Hejna, and Mike Fitzgerald played outstandingly the entire season for the fighting frosh.

A superb defensive rush by the hard hitting Ponies results in a Niles East fumble and a Morton recovery of the football.

Colts obtain another first down as gridman Hejna plunges through the line for short yardage.

Due to Lack of Participation, Soccermen Key on Endurance

Led by such Mustang stalwarts as Ed Pavlis, Stan Stopka, Dan Habel, Miles Fiala, and Sam De Fillipis, the booters finished the season with a 2-6 Suburban League record. The season was highlighted by a 2-1 victory over Oak Park in the rain and cold. The first goal was scored by the Huskies, but the Mustangs came back with a goal by Bob Ivetic. This left the score 1-1 at the half. Sharp defensive play kept the game tied until Miles Fiala scored the winning goal with five minutes left.

Rookie Coach Wayne Justmann was at the helm of this year's team. He stated, "We had a fine group of boys, but we could have used more." Not having a large team, he tried to make up for depth with endurance. Coach Justmann said, "Most of my workouts were based on the fact that a soccer player must have endurance. With the new uniforms and locker-room facilities as incentives, we are expecting a better turnout next year." As for his feelings about the Suburban League, he added that it is the best league in the state for good competitive soccer.

The sophomore squad headed by Coach Dave Axon started off poorly, but picked up momentum and won three of their last four games. Douglas Pekarek and Adam Bednara did excellent jobs in their positions.

Cross-Country Gets New Coach; Ekl Grabs Sixth in District Meet

Under the leadership of a new varsity coach, Coach Lee King, the Morton harriers finished with a 3 and 4 record in the Suburban League this year. Being plagued with injuries and having a limited amount of manpower, the harriers placed fifth in the league standings.

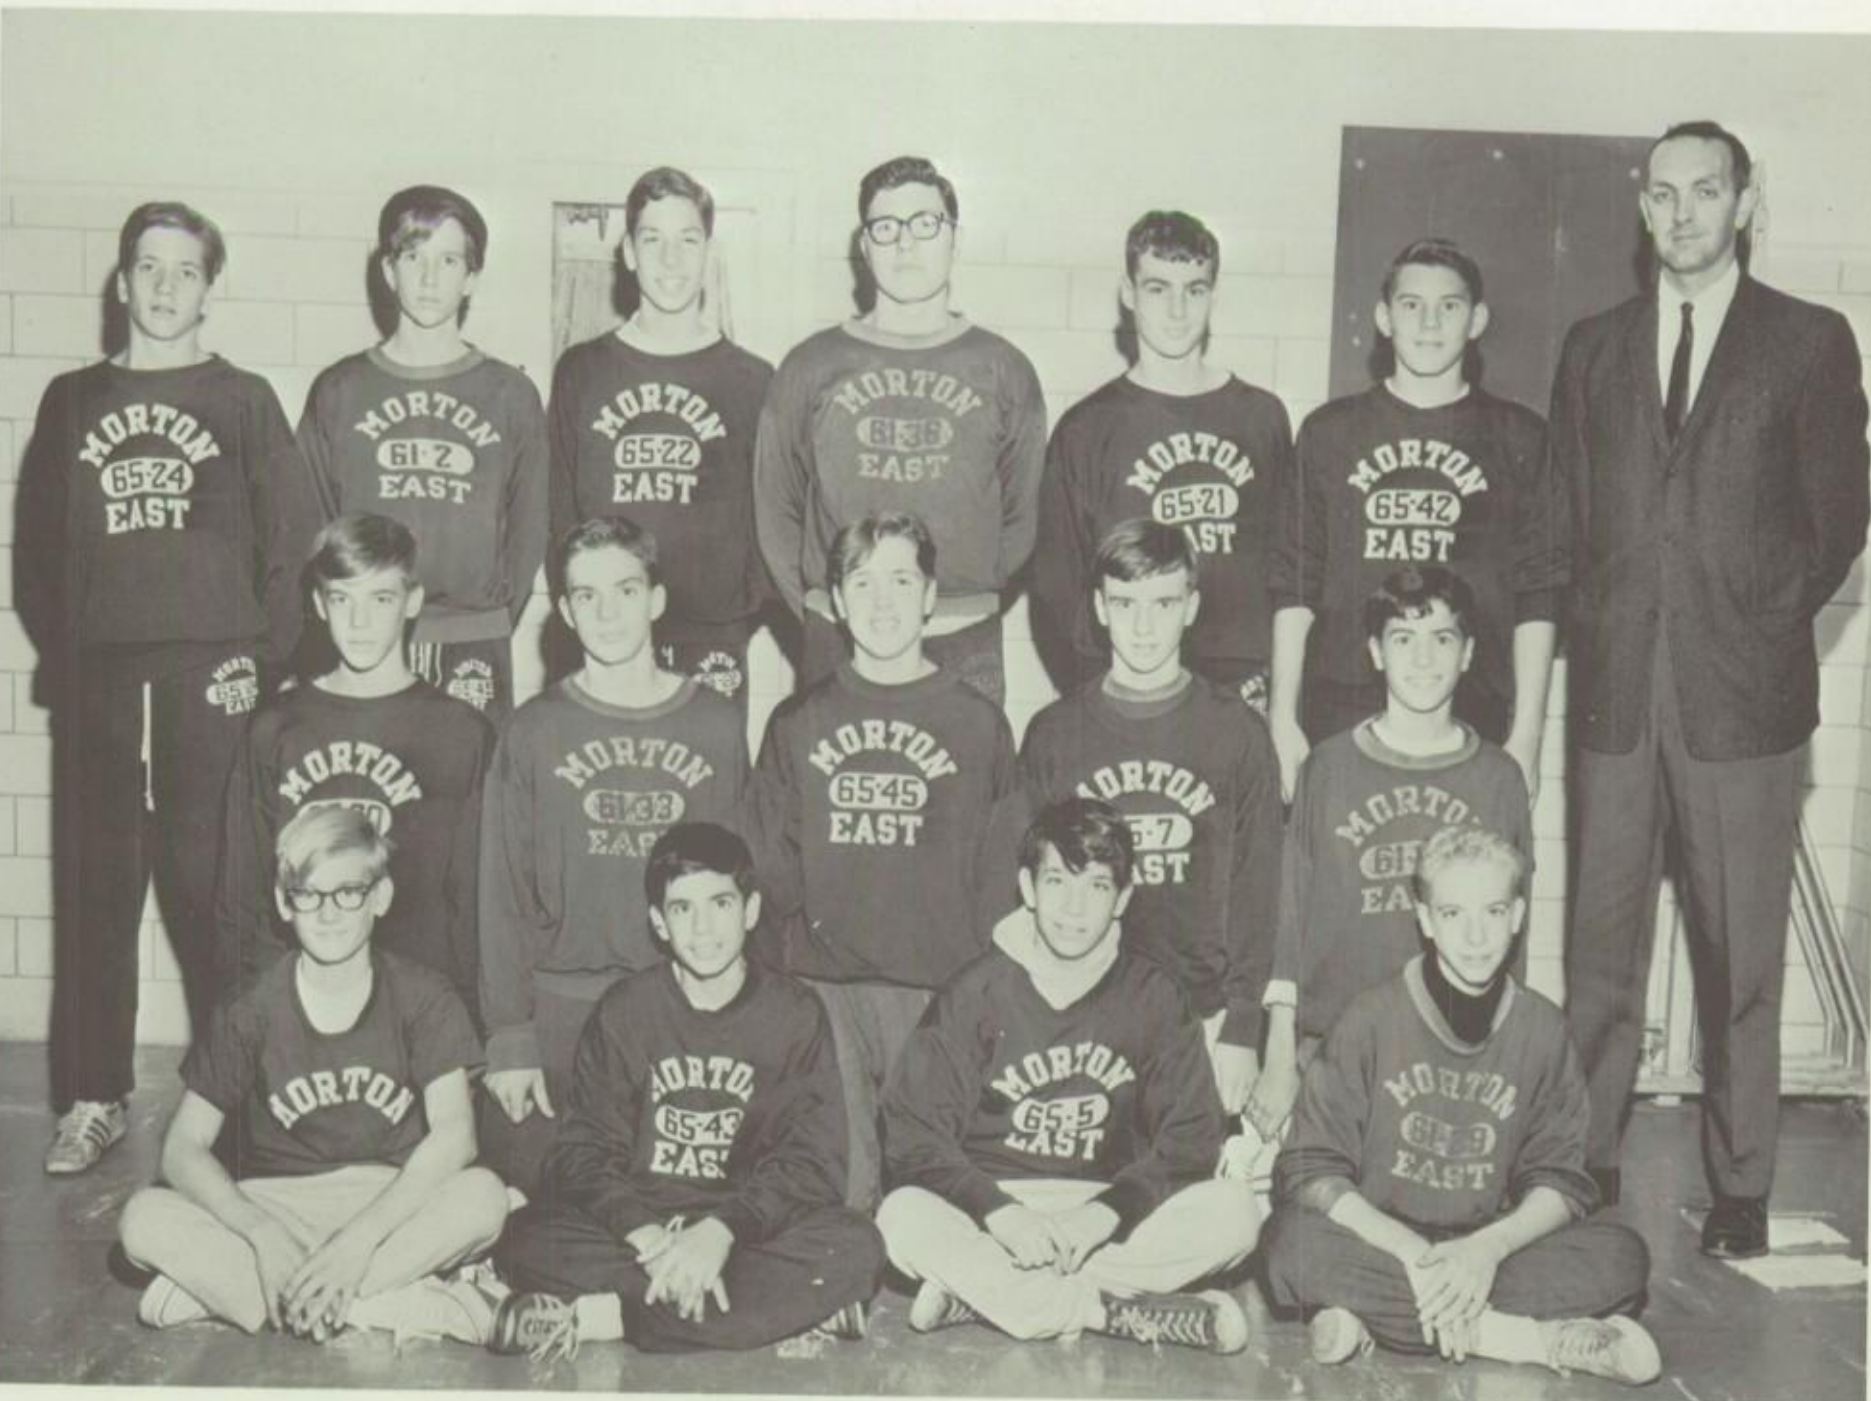

Competing in the district meet held at Miller's Meadows were runners Rick Ekl, Jim Tabor, Steve Zenisek, Ken Ecker, Lindsay Huth, Ray Gully, and Lou Marovitch. In this meet, Morton's finest runner, Rick Ekl, took a sixth place out of 180 runners. Because of his fine ability to run and determination to always run every race faster than the one before, Rick Ekl was chosen as captain of the varsity squad by his teammates. Other varsity runners showing fine performances this year were Dave Hansen, Jim Tabor, Al Yankosky, Ken Ecker, and Steve Zenisek.

On the sophomore level, Coach D. G. Hudgens produced two outstanding runners who show much promise for the varsity team next year. They are Ray Gully and Lou Marovitch.

Varsity Cagers Place Third In Proviso West Holiday Tournament

The hopes of a trip to Champaign for our varsity basketball team were lost during a rough season. The year started out with great team spirit and enthusiasm, but after a few tough games and a losing streak the team slowly slipped down in the standings. Coach Don Hudgens said, "This year's squad was one of the finest I've seen in years. Despite the tough breaks we've had, the team kept up a fine spirit." Juniors Joe Siemianowski and Ziggy Tauginas along with senior Jim Benka, were high scorers for Morton. Jack Adams and Ron Nykiel also showed their athletic prowess at every game. The highlight of the long season for the Mustangs was their third place victory in the Proviso West Holiday Tournament. The Mustangs rolled over East Leyden 79-70 and Riverside Brookfield 60-55 before being beaten by Proviso East 48-29. They scored a 57-53 victory over host Proviso West to capture third place in the tournament.

Ponies Lose Valuable Players; Second Place Finish for Frosh

Because of stiff Suburban League competition, the sophomore cagers finished the season with a 3 and 11 mark. Although the team showed much spirit and determination, the main difficulties were key injuries. The team suffered a loss of three men during the season, Jerry Olmstead, who suffered a sprained ankle; Art Grzeskowiak, who broke his arm during a game; and Al Schnulle, the star Pony center, who was moved up to the varsity level during the course of the season.

Despite the losing seasons of their upperclassmen, the freshmen basketball team finished with a near-perfect season. The frosh A team, coached by Mr. John Sime, finished second in the standings. Losing only two games, Mr. Wayne Justman's B team finished first in the league. This squad may prove to be the makings of a fine varsity team for the future years.

Losing Season for Indoor Track; New Facilities to Open Next Year

The Morton indoor track squad took it hard on the nose this year by losing all of the dual meets in competition. This placed the team into last place in the Suburban League standings. Varsity coaches D. W. Ritchie and Lee King stated that this poor showing was due to the lack of depth on the team. "Not enough of the boys are willing to work hard; therefore, they don't come out for the team." Coach Ritchie also stated that the boys just were not running as fast this year as in the years past.

Despite the shortage of manpower, the determined cinder-men gave their opponents tough competition. In the Morton East Relays, the Mustangs were nosed out of many points by just a few seconds. Although it was a losing year, the Mustangs' times continued to improve. With their small number, each man on the team worked to the best of his ability. The freshmen and sophomores showed signs of becoming outstanding teams in the future years at Morton. Next year the indoor track squad will take on a new outlook with the use of the new indoor track facilities.

Mermen Take T.F.S. Invitational; Relay Team, Behensky Finalists

The Morton varsity mermen finished the season on February 24 in the District finals. The medley relay team of Jim Behensky, John Taska, George Slood, and Tom Mack took a fifth place in District competition, while Behensky soloed in the 100-yard backstroke, reaching fourth in a field of thirty. None of this year's squad traveled to the State Meet even though the potential of several members indicated that they were state material.

Morton's drop into the cellar of the tough Suburban League was primarily the result of illness of the squad. Since the team did not have too much depth, the loss of a few key individuals because of illness proved disastrous to the hopes for a winning season. However, the team was in full gear when they went to Thornton Fractional North and swept the invitational trophy away from four other schools.

Outstanding individuals of this year's team included varsity backstroke record-holder Jim Behensky; John Taska in the 100-yard breaststroke; George Slood, record holder in the 200-yard individual; George Schumacher in the butterfly; Joel Sandrik and Tom Mack in the 50 and 100-yard free style; and Mike Kasuba in the 200 and 400. A new varsity record was also set by the previously mentioned medley relay team.

Pony Tankmen Take Sixth Place; Frosh Shatter All School Marks

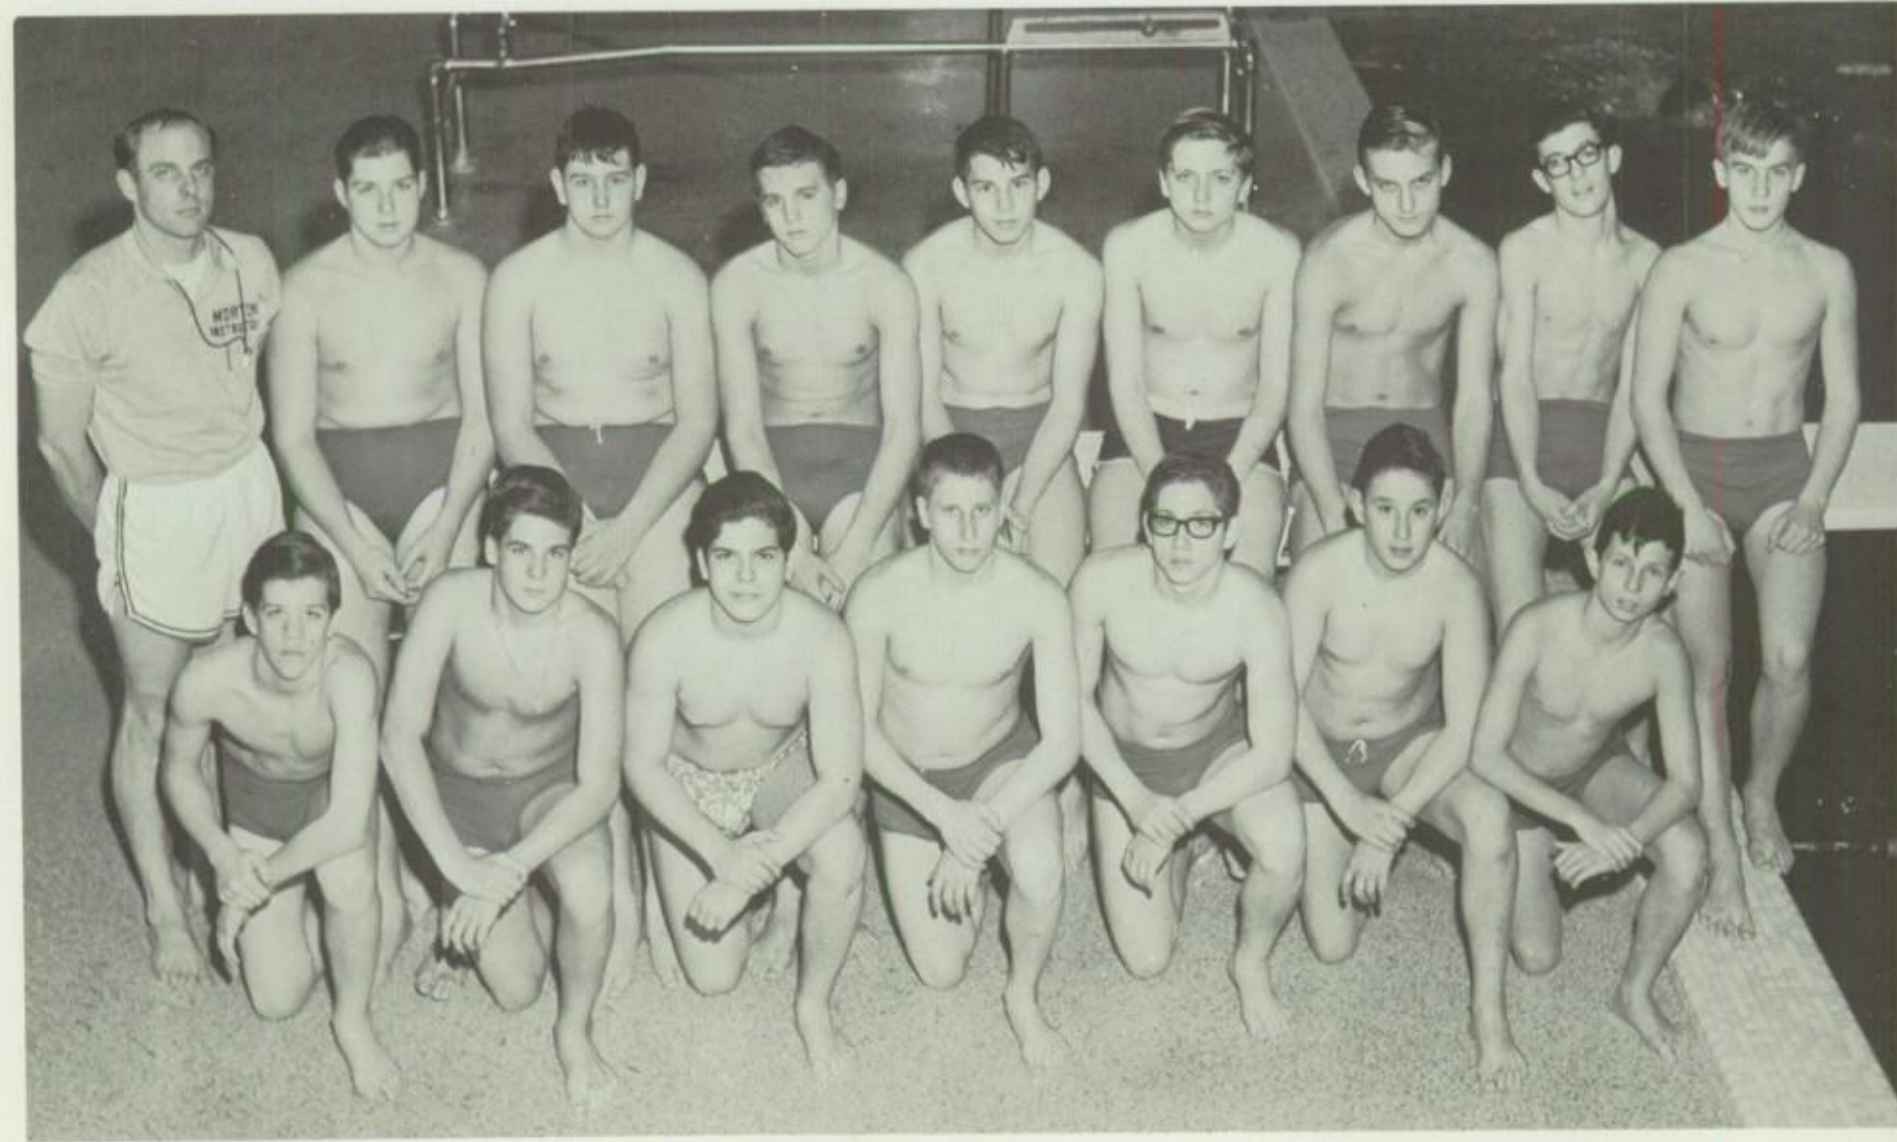

The sophomore tankmen took two league meets this season, taking both Niles and Proviso East, to bring them up to sixth place in the league standings. The sophs also brought home a trophy by winning the TFS Sophomore Invitational. Co-captain Rich Silha led the sophs through the season, breaking existing school marks in the 200 and 400 free-style. Co-captain Tony Campo broke a record in the 200 individual, as did Glenn Linhart in the backstroke and Mike Grisco in the fly. Free-stylers Wayne Paspergelis and Dale Eppers did a fine job as members of the record-breaking free relay; the medley relay also set a new mark.

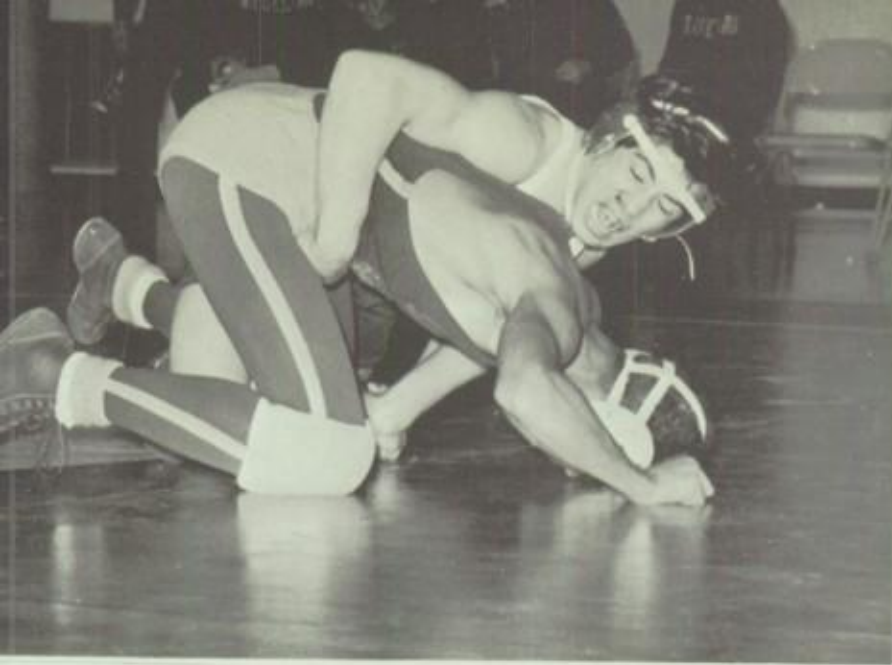

Meanwhile, the freshmen, swimming in a new pool and under a new coach, tore out of the cellar and moved up to fifth place, simultaneously shattering every freshman record in the Morton books. Key members of the frosh squad include Tony Rusnak, Rich Nesladek, Jerry Wagner, and Mark Zapalik. "The entire team is deserving of the credit," stated Coach Roethke.

Brejla Wins Heavyweight Crown; Kratochvil, Brejla to Sectionals

Although the matmen took sixth place in Suburban League competition, great plans are being formulated for next year's squad. The team's 4 and 13 record was disappointing, but this in itself is not so bad considering that seventy per cent of the team is composed of juniors. Senior Otto Brejla led the squad with a record of 16 wins and 2 losses. Brejla, a heavy-weight, took the District crown by defeating all three of his opponents. He and Tom Kratochvil, who took a second in Districts in the 180 pound group, were Morton's only entrants in Sectionals. Senior Andy Strompolos, who wrestled in the 138-pound bracket, was second only to Brejla with 14 victories. Other matmen who did outstanding jobs were Mike Castillo, Jim Panelli, Terry Conway, and Dennis Asselborn, each amassing ten or more victories. Castillo and Panelli, both underclassmen, made the District finals.

With a quick reverse, varsity star Andy Strompolos wins his match.

Disappointing Season for Ponies; Mike Willis Paces Colt Grapplers

Although the freshmen matmen, who finished with a 4 and 9 record, did not enjoy a fine season, they had several individuals who performed well. Leading the Colts was Mike Willis, credited with the best individual record of eleven wins, one loss, and one tie. Other outstanding team members were Jim Kaptana, Chris Skisak, and Rich Swasko. Grappler Wally Jaworski had the fastest pin, 19 seconds. Other squad members who did fine jobs were Bill Palleva and John Hellwig.

The sophomores experienced a less successful season than the freshmen, finishing with a record of 2 and 12. David Salvino and Warren Jacobson headed the Ponies' squad with the best team records. David Cox and Mike Woznicki followed, both doing excellent jobs. There were also four freshmen regulars on the squad: John Schwender, Greg Simms, Randy Drozd, and Bill Wilkiel. Larry Suhrbur, Gary Hainrihar, Rich Prykop, and Billy Honeycutt were other sophomores who did fine jobs.

Apathy, Mishaps Thwart Gymnasts; Efforts of Few Prove Fruitless

Due to lack of participation and an increase in injuries, the gymnasts did not fare as well as expected. On the individual level, however, the team showed good quality and initiative. Mike Re, maintaining his outstanding style, contributed much to the potential of the team. Another top scorer, Dennis Rollinger, who performed on the side horse, also added to the final outcome of the season. According to Coach Swanson, "The boys tried their hardest, but it was just a bad year; many of our high scorers were out due to injuries. The sophomores, like the varsity, had a troublesome season also. With the other teams ahead in competition, the gymnasts worked to their fullest capacity; however, it was to no avail. Even with several outstanding individuals, the team finished with an 0-7 record. Cheerleaders were an attractive addition to gymnastics this year. Although this was their first season, the boys hope they will return next year to cheer them on to victory.

Sports Programs Offered at East Continue to Fascinate Many Girls

Days of bloomers are long gone from Morton's gym classes and girls' sports; the memories, however, still remain. Those were the days when girls' baseball teams were popular and the girls' M-Club was an important extracurricular activity. No longer are they around, but the girls of today are not deprived of participating in other athletic areas. Today, a girl can partake in wrestling or gymnastic meets by cheering her team on as a cheerleader. New facilities have been built which enable a girl to enjoy herself at various events. Maybe the participation is not as direct as in the past, but the thrills and anxieties are still present. The memories of today will be remembered as long as those of yesterday.

Symbolizing school spirit, cheerleaders support the team's effort.

Varsity Cheerleaders Use Slogan To Boost Spirit Among Students

"The Mustang Rebellion Wants You!" was the slogan used by the varsity cheerleaders this year. The main purpose of this theme was to boost school spirit. During the year, the pep assemblies were conducted by these girls. The entire squad wrote and participated in these skits with the assistance of the football and basketball players.

At camp, the girls ranked first in final competition. They were also presented with the Spirit Stick because of their exceptional enthusiasm. Much time is devoted to create new cheers and perfect old ones. The cheerleaders inspire our team on to victory as well and show good sportsmanship against opposing schools. At the annual banquet held last spring, M's were presented to deserving members and special awards were given to girls who were on the squad for three years.

Girls Show Agility, Athletic Skills For Yearly Cheerleading Tryouts

At every sophomore football and basketball game, a group of girls can be seen promoting school spirit. These cheerleaders lead the crowds on with cheers and chants in hopes for a victory. To be selected on the squad, the girls must prove their agility and athletic skill at the yearly try-outs. Some of the requirements to become a cheerleader are a handspring, a college jump, a back jump, a down back jump, and a split. The girls must also have a neat appearance and show good conduct at all times. At the end of the year, awards are presented to girls who have accumulated a certain number of points. All three squads were supervised by Mrs. E. C. Herda and Mrs. J. L. Sustr.

Freshman Cheerleading Proves To Be Success in Second Year

The freshman cheerleading squad, which was first started last year as an experiment, was organized for the purpose of boosting the spirit of underclass teams. These girls cheer at various sport events and at pep assemblies. Experience as a cheerleader in grammar school is required in order to try out for the freshman squad. Athletic skills and ability are two basic requirements necessary for selection. Try-outs are held in the beginning of each school year. The girls selected spend many hours perfecting the movements of their cheers. Co-adviser, Mrs. E. C. Herda, stated that because of their progress, the selecting of freshman cheerleading squads will be continued in future years.

Leaders Welcome New Adviser; Continue Service in PE Classes

Leaders, consisting of the junior and senior girls in white, assist their gym teachers by refereeing all games, taking attendance, demonstrating skills, giving individual aid, and teaching wherever they are needed. The year before, as sophomores, the girls learn the techniques of being skilled leaders. Being a leader provides many girls with new techniques in leading and learning responsibility for future teaching assignments. Leaders are essential because it would be difficult for a teacher to handle fifty or more girls without any assistance. To be a leader, a girl must have at least a C average, be interested in all aspects of physical education, and be recommended by her gym teacher. Mrs. Keslov was the new adviser of the leaders this past year.

Girls Cheer at Wrestling Meets; Sponsor Banquet for Grapplers

Wrestling Pep Club, now in its fifth year, has come a long way. The girls have gone to every away meet as well as home meets to cheer our wrestlers. The club has worked hard to promote wrestling enthusiasm and has done a fine job in supporting the teams and cheering the wrestlers to victory. To raise money, the Wrestling Pep Club held a sock-hop, bake sale, and a playnight. At the end of the year, the girls sponsor a banquet in honor of the outstanding wrestlers of the year. Tryouts for Wrestling Pep are held in the spring of each year and a scholastic average of at least C is required in order to try out. Members who have worked hard all year can earn an M as a reward for their service. The adviser is Mrs. B. Arnold.

GAA Float Receives First Place In '67 Homecoming Competition

Girls' Athletic Association has changed considerably over the past fifty years. This club helps stimulate the interest in sports and outdoor activities. It also seeks to bring girls together who want to enjoy themselves. Besides participating in extracurricular events, the true value of sportsmanship and teamwork is learned. Each year a girl can earn an award if she accumulates enough points. During the freshman year a pin and numerals are awarded. An M is given to any sophomore who has 150 points. I's are presented to juniors, and seniors receive a state map. The state map and the letter I are state awards, which are the highest honors to receive. Playdays are held to enable different schools to take part in athletic events and meet new friends. The club sponsors a bake sale, pencil sale, and a sock-hop. New officers are announced at the annual banquet, which is held in the spring. At that time, two outstanding girls who have been active in the club are chosen to represent Morton at GAA camp. This lasts one week, and many new games are learned. The club's theme, "Happiness," was emphasized throughout the year to make the club more fun. GAA was honored with first place for the float they entered in the homecoming parade. Long hours were spent each night to make this prize-winning float. Two new teachers, Mrs. S. Jayne and Miss J. Chase, were co-advisers.

Adviser Encourages Attendance For Mastering Dance Techniques

Girls who are interested in modern dance, can attend the weekly meetings of the Modern Dance Club held in the new dance room. According to Mrs. K. K. Tully, the club's new adviser, the purpose of these meetings is to teach girls basic dance techniques which they can incorporate into a composition for the Modern Dance Show, which is their main event of the year. Weeks of preparing and hours of practicing and choreographing the dances are necessary to make up a successful dance show. At the end of the year a banquet is given to honor all seniors and to give awards to those girls who have been in the dance show and have been active members. It is possible with good attendance and participation in various dances to earn an M after two years.

Different steps and movements are used to comprise a dance routine.

Through 25 Years of Existence Tumbling Fascinates Participants

After twenty-five years of being an organization, Tumbling Club is one of the oldest established clubs at Morton. Each fall, many girls come and learn all types of tumbling techniques and acrobatic stunts. Membership also offers the girls an opportunity to develop better skills and coordination. New officers are announced at the annual banquet, which is held every spring. At that time M's and special awards are given to members who have earned the number of points needed. Membership is open to anyone who enjoys tumbling. During the Christmas holiday, Tumbling Club was honored with second place in the Hall Decorating Contest. Many girls join Tumbling Club because of a desire to participate in cheerleading or to continue learning about the teaching of physical education. The club is supervised by Mrs. E. C. Herda.

Girls Sponsor Yearly Activities; Attend Swimmers' Spring Banquet

Assisting at all home meets, timing different events, supporting the team with their enthusiasm, and promoting school spirit are some of the duties of the Swim Timers. These girls sponsored many activities, which included two splash parties and a bake sale. Members also attended the annual Swimming Team banquet held in the spring, in which all swim teams and outstanding swimmers are honored. Coach D. E. Axon, new adviser, hopes that the club will become more active in future years.

Timers Complete Second Year; Boost Morale at All Home Meets

For two years, Track Timers have been an organized club. These girls have the responsibility of keeping scores at all home meets as well as boosting school spirit. Members are given a silver charm in the shape of a track shoe when they earn enough points. These are presented to them at the yearly banquet. At that time new officers are announced for the coming year. The girls received new uniforms, which consist of red culotte skirts with a matching red jacket.

Clubs have played an important role in the history of Morton. Some have faded into the past, but other organizations have continued to enrich students in their particular field of interest.

Activities

Golden Year Represents Memories Of East Clubs and Their Members

Morton has always had a variety of extracurricular activities for students to enjoy. As time progressed, some clubs began to lose their popularity and gradually ceased to exist. Such clubs were the Roller Skating Club and the Boys' Pep Club. Other clubs, however, continue to maintain strong popularity even to the present day.

Students are still quite interested in dramatics, as shown by the number of productions which Morton presents each year. Vocal music also continues to be one of the major activities in our school. It now extends from the Freshmen Girls' Chorus to the Aeolian Choir. Although it has changed some in appearance, the Swim Club is also an active club in Morton. These organizations and others have survived through many years, and students will probably maintain an interest in them for many more years to come.

Roller Club members don their skates for their annual tournament derby.

Voices of the Aeolian Choir blend under the direction of Mr. Kickert.

The dramatic department has always given the students an opportunity to display their talents in plays.

Swim Club proved to be just as successful in the thirties as it is nowadays; however, today its participants consist of both boys and girls.

Once an active club at Morton, the Boys' Pep Club was formed as the male answer to the cheering girls in white blouses.

Girls participating in sports of their time deserved the honor of being initiated into the Girls' M-Club, once the most popular club for girls.

Morton's Clubs Vary As Students' Interests Differ Through the Years

From time to time the size and types of clubs vary since the interests of students change. At one time the Bohemian Club was one of the largest organizations at Morton. There was also a time when the jazz orchestra was the most popular addition to the school's activities. Another active organization was the senior orchestra, whose participants often displayed their talents through concerts.

Girls who earned M's through their participation in extracurricular activities formed their own M-Club. When the club was first organized, its size was almost equal to that of the Boys' M-Club. Today's girls have turned to more feminine activities, for M-Club is composed strictly of male members.

The senior orchestra, an addition to the music department in the thirties, played during the social hours, which were held every other Wednesday.

New MSGA Constitution Ratified

Highlighted in the program of the MSGA delegation was the revision of the old constitution. In order to have it understood, all cabinet and board members explained the constitution to every English class. In December the entire student body voted on the new constitution. The results were ratification with the ratio of four to one. The revised issue of the constitution, however, will not go into effect until the beginning of the 1968-69 school year.

The New Colony Six were spotlighted during the annual Morton East Student Government concert. Also included in the program were the Mauve Affair and the Apocryphals. As an added attraction, girl students danced on stage to the psychedelic beat of the bands. Among the featured songs which the New Colony Six sang were "I Confess", "Treat Her Groovy", and "I Love You So Much". "This concert proved to be a great success to the MSGA treasury," stated Diane Ave Maria, president of the student government.

New MSGA Committee Formed

A lack of communication has repeatedly been suggested as one cause of the lack of school spirit. As a result, the MSGA formed a new committee, the Communication Committee. This committee was responsible for the improvement of communication between administration, student government, faculty, and students. Among the methods used to start this improvement were direct letters to faculty members, numerous posters, and hall banners. The committee had a few shortcomings and did not accomplish all that it wanted to, but it firmly established a new committee which can, with more work and support, develop into a most influential organization during the coming year.

New Group Arouses School Spirit

To promote school spirit, MSGA formed the School Spirit Committee, which was instrumental in arousing this year's student body. With Mr. Wayne Justmann as the adviser, the committee sponsored over fifteen school spirit days, on which students wore maroon and white during the school day and at the athletic events.

In addition to the school spirit days, the groups planned the successful hall decorating contest during the Christmas season and initiated a senior night for basketball players. Because of its initial success, the School Spirit Committee will be continued in the future. Mr. Justmann stated that a number of new ideas will be tried next year.

Committee Sponsors Card Sale

During the Christmas season, the Exchange Committee sponsored a UNICEF Christmas card sale. According to Paul Koppang, Exchange Committee chairman, "The response to the card sale was very good. Proceeds went to UNICEF funds for needy children." The committee also sponsored a basketball game between the faculty and disc jockeys from Chicago radio stations. The game was attended by many faculty members as well as students from both East and West. The money raised at the game went to various charities. Among the projects planned for next year is an exchange student program. The project would be arranged through the language teachers, and selected students would probably be from Germany.

MSGGA Schedules East Concerts

Because the concert sponsored by the Morton Student Government Association last year was so successful, the MSGGA organized a new committee, the Concert Committee. Its main purpose is the organization and management of school concerts. Their first concert this year was held in October. It featured the "New Colony Six," the "Apocryphals," and the "Mauve Affair." The concert was organized to appeal to those who like hard rock, folk rock, and soul music. Late in February, the committee sponsored its second concert. The "San Francisco Trolley," the "United States," and the "New Mystics" were featured. Psychedelic lights, used to bring young people into contact with the group on stage, highlighted the concert.

'Fantasia,' '67 Homecoming Theme

"Fantasia" was this year's homecoming theme. Major school organizations, including Booster Club, Cheerleaders, Pep Club, and MSGA, nominated girls for the homecoming queen instead of football players. Nominees were introduced at a kick-off mixer, where music was provided by the "Apocryphals." Activities of the week preceding homecoming day included a hall decorating contest and a pep assembly.

Major school organizations contributed six floats to the homecoming parade. This year the parade route was shortened. Kathy Quinn, Morton's 1967 homecoming queen, was crowned during halftime of the varsity game. The dance was decorated to coincide with the theme "Camelot." A bridge highlighted the entrance to the cafe, and interior decorations resembled a medieval castle decorated with the royal colors, purple and gold. Music was provided by the "Marijuana Brass," and punch and cookies were served as refreshments.

Booster Club Adds School Spirit

By wearing their red sweaters, Booster Club girls helped to awaken more school spirit in the student body this year. Club members wore their sweaters and pins when they sat as a group during all the pep assemblies held during the school year. The girls also continued to spread school spirit by selling refreshments at all home football and basketball games. This service is Booster Club's main purpose. Profits were applied toward payment of the annual dinner-dance held in April at the Elmhurst Country Club. Girls and their dates attended this banquet, which honored all senior athletes.

Girls wishing to become Booster Club members answer a questionnaire at the end of the school year. The applications are then reviewed by club advisors, Mr. W. A. Stern and Miss G. Kelecich, who, together with club officers, interview the finalists and choose the club's new members.

M-Block Increases Membership

After a number of years of decreasing participation, M-Block was reorganized this year under the leadership of William Dusek, club president, and Mr. D. Musil, adviser. Whereas there were only six members the year before, membership for this year jumped to over fifty.

In addition to cheering at all football and basketball games, the M-Block members involved themselves with other activities. During the year, they sponsored a sock-hop and were instrumental in promoting school spirit through the sale of Mustang Rebellion pins. Also, from funds derived at a playnight, M-Block will buy and donate next year a pitching machine for the baseball teams.

White Sweaters Add School Spirit

White sweaters worn with any type of skirt have become the new attire of all Pep Club members. The girls wore this outfit on all school spirit days and to all home football and basketball games. Pep Club was assigned a certain section this year in the stands which they shared with M-Block. Members were also allowed to attend pep assemblies together, and the white sweaters made the group more spirited. Pep Club officers devised a new point system which required the girls to attend a certain number of games.

Pep Club teamed with the Girls' Athletic Association to present a fashion show sponsored by Patricia Stevens. Girls who wished to act as models attended tryouts, and fourteen girls were finally chosen. Pep Club also accepted the added responsibility of decorating the stadium and gym for games. Their talents paid off when their homecoming float came in third place. A Halloween playnight and a sock-hop following a basketball game helped to increase the Pep Club treasury. Funds from these activities were used to sponsor a basketball banquet.

M-Club Participates in Dedication

On the nights of the PTO open house and the dedication of Hapac Memorial Gymnasium, M-Club members acted as guides for parents and guests as they toured the annex. They also served as ushers for pep assemblies and for the MSGA concerts. M-Club, along with the Junior and Senior Honor Societies, co-sponsored the Christmas dance. Other activities of the club included a play-night and two splash parties.

Membership was at a low early in the year, but towards the end of first semester it was just about normal, numbering approximately forty boys. "We're trying to get more boys who have received letters interested in joining the club," remarked Mr. W. H. Johnson, club adviser. "We think the initiations have been scaring some of them away." In January, M-Club held a limited initiation for new members who received letters from fall sports.

Councils Serve at School Affairs

Ushering and assisting at social events of the school are the main purposes of the Junior and Senior Councils. Boys worked in seating the people who attended the Morton faculty and staff Christmas dinner in December, and the faculty fall breakfast. The boys also ushered on the nights of the fall production, Funny Girl. During the PTO open house, the boys guided parents through the halls, classrooms, and the annex. Demonstrating their main service, Junior and Senior Councils also ushered for the Honors Banquet and Class Night. The boys met together every Thursday during homeroom. The organization is open to anyone who is willing to work and participate in its activities.

For the first time this year freshmen girls were eligible for membership into Militaires. Now, a girl of any class rank may become a Militaire providing she practices diligently and participates in all band activities. Morton's marching group of girls, the Militaires, marched in a parade for Cicero's Fire Prevention Week last fall. They used flags of emerald green, brilliant red, yellow, orange, blue, and white. The attire of the Militaires consisted of a full dress uniform. The leaders and the old members wore maroon shorts as opposed to the new members, who wore white shorts. The Militaires also led the homecoming parade and performed in the half-time show, "Fantasia." Their instructress, Mrs. Ward, worked with the girls so that they could carry out their marching drills successfully. The girls practiced with the band for many weeks and displayed their talents by twirling their flags in time with the song tunes.

Here the Militaires lead the homecoming parade as they display their colorful, attractive banners down the parade route of Twenty-Second Street.

Club Collects School Supplies

Each year Junior-Senior Girls choose a specific project to donate their attention to. "This year they collected school supplies for the Peace Corps in Brazil," added Miss J. O. Rydberg, club sponsor. Girls collected Christmas cards which they sent to the Oak Park Community Center for the retarded children in Oak Park. During the homecoming game, club members sold mum corsages. They were also present to welcome parents to the last football game celebrating Moms' and Dads' Day. Junior-Senior Girls also served at the Teachers' Christmas Dinner, sponsored the Mother-Daughter Banquet, and ran the Lost and Found Department.

Guards Maintain Orderly Cafe

Cafe guards promoted an orderly environment in which students were able to enjoy their meals and relax. By striving to create a pleasant atmosphere in which to eat, the cafe guards themselves gained management experience and developed good leadership practices. "Cafe guards also displayed an exceptionally fine image of Morton citizenship, which they hoped would be an inspiration to all students in Morton," stated Mr. B. C. Holloway and Mr. J. L. Hampton, advisers. In order to be recognized, cafe guards wore suit coats, white shirts, and ties. To make the cafe guard organization an enjoyable one, activities were planned for almost every month; for instance, guards and their dates enjoyed a Christmas party and a sleigh ride.

East Ticket Office Handles Sales

Ticket Office is a service organization involving all school activities where tickets and money are exchanged. This activity involved the sales of such items as the yearbook, athletic tickets, dance tickets, and play-night tickets. The Ticket Office concluded the year with the sale of prom tickets. Students involved in this service were chosen on the basis of intelligence, reliability, and personal integrity. The members were responsible for box-office supervision after each school activity. Extracurricular activities included the annual Christmas and spring dinner. Mr. F. C. Petrdil, adviser, encouraged responsibility among the student personnel.

Audio-Visual Department Expanded

Expansion of the Audio-Visual Department was the major change in the department this year. A wall of the former physical education office was knocked out, thereby connecting the two rooms. The added room is being used mainly for extra storage space.

Through the addition of more televisions, the Audio-Visual Department plans to make the television a more widely used piece of equipment in classroom education. The department now owns nine television sets. Usually, Operators has an average of eight boys available every hour to service teachers; however, this year they ran into a slight problem because there were no operators available during two hours of the day.

Operators check over their equipment as a preparation for presenting films to history classes.

Patients Helped Through Books

Students purchased books for use in tutoring underprivileged children with the money collected from the Human Relations Club bake sale. According to Mr. L. M. Pollina, adviser, "Our club was the first organization to sponsor a bake sale in the 1967-68 school year." Because the seniors were enabled to take a combined sociology-psychology course, membership increased. Not only did the members discuss problems of nationalities and races, but they took action by offering assistance to deprived people in the Chicago land area. Since the class met during the sixth and seventh hours, more time was available in order to aid patients at various hospitals in the district. Tutors took time in understanding each child individually.

The Chicago Mental Hospital is the destination of these East tutors.

SVS Visits State Mental Hospital

During the Christmas season, the Student Volunteer Service sponsored a visit to the Chicago State Mental Hospital. Choir members were also invited to lead the caroling and to participate in the activities. Altogether, three busloads of students attended. All of the patients received gifts which had been donated by the Morton students.

SVS also sponsored a weekly visit to the Chicago State Mental Hospital. Members who wished to visit the children's wards went every week, and those who would rather visit the men's and women's wards went every other week. The volunteers visited four wards, which have an approximate total of 360 patients. The students remained at the hospital for almost three hours every Tuesday. While they were there, the volunteers occupied the patients' time with many different activities: playing cards, dancing, and putting puzzles together.

East Debaters Discuss Problems

"Crime and the Control of It" was the topic of debate when three teams from Morton East were guests at Northern Illinois University in DeKalb. One question that the squad discussed at the first tournament asked, "Should the federal government establish uniform controls in original investigation procedures?" The topic also included such items as: "Is wire-tapping legal?", "What types of procedures and interrogation should be followed by the police?" To promote their skill in reasoned arguments, debaters appeared on the Lee Phillip Show in early December.

During the summer, members of the team attended clinics for debate. According to Mr. M. Ostertag, team coach, "All students received superior ratings at the clinics."

In early fall, novice debaters gained a third place trophy at Evanston High School. Following the winning of this trophy, the debate squad held a pizza party. Debaters also visited Carbondale in January to participate in a tournament.

Quill and Scroll Reviews Projects

One of the larger Quill and Scroll research projects completed in 1967 was the study on "Measuring the Readability of High School Newspapers" conducted by Dr. Campbell and Dean George R. Klare of Ohio University. The foundation printed this research report in booklet form and provided every Quill and Scroll chapter with a free copy. Other research by Quill and Scroll Studies will either be distributed in booklet form or reviewed in the pages of the magazine when the projects are completed.

A number of projects of significant value of scholastic journalism have been completed and other studies are either in progress or are planned for the coming year. The foundation this year conducted research in the field of high school journalism, cooperated with existing organizations in pursuing special studies, and granted scholarships and loans to worthy, selected students. The advisers this year were Miss H. C. Chrison and Mr. G. Jackson, who are the advisers of the newspaper and yearbook.

Newspaper Changes Lay-Outs

In its fifty-first year of publication, the MORTONIAN, the Student Newspaper, underwent a marked change in page lay-outs. Whereas in years previous there were three features pages and one sports page, this year the four-page MORTONIAN consisted of two features pages and two sports pages. "We believe that the change," explained Virginia Mazurkiewicz, "was successful because of strong student interest in sports."

Again rated among the finest bi-weeklies in the state, the MORTONIAN continued its fine news coverage with in depth stories on the MSGA constitution revision, which called for major changes in student government. In a signed editorial, the staff came out in support of the new constitution.

Among the interesting feature articles that appeared in the paper during this year were ones on the numerous foreign students at Morton and original by-lined interviews on disc jockey Clark Weber and television personality Lee Phillips.

After nine years as adviser of the MORTONIAN, the Student Newspaper, Miss H. C. Chison has resigned her position and has joined the Morton Junior College faculty. A new adviser will be named for the 1968-69 school year.

Annual Celebrates 50th Jubilee

To catch a glimpse of life through the years at Morton was the goal of this year's fiftieth anniversary yearbook. Sue Doering explained, "Each division of the yearbook contains four-page picture layouts, exemplifying gradual changes in academic subjects, fashions, activities, and sports. We've tried to include as many old pictures as possible in order to honor the years past."

Morton's golden anniversary book underwent more changes once again throughout its different sections. "The features section of this annual is written in a new poetic style to keep in line with modern yearbook techniques," commented Mr. Gus Jackson, adviser. "This section is unique from the other parts of the yearbook because its purpose is to pictorially explain all important happenings on the school's calendar in a matter of a few pages. This year we wanted to include the important happenings in the last fifty years; therefore, the features section has been greatly expanded."

Never before in Morton's history has there been more than one editor-in-chief. However, the 1968 yearbook has taken advantage of double ideas from twin editors. Sandy and Sue Doering, co-editors-in-chief, said, "The 'Golden Chronicle of Progress', the 1968 Mortonian, has striven to give students a basic understanding of past and present life at Morton East."

Dramatics Leaves Little Theatre

After many years of working in the Little Theatre, the Dramatics Department has moved its equipment to the stage. There was a great deal of difficulty moving from the Little Theatre to the stage because of the amount of equipment and the problem of getting it downstairs. "The stage is much more adequate than the Little Theatre," stated Miss D. Anderson, Thespian adviser. "There is a larger area to work with and a better view for the audience. There is still much work to be done, but it is really nice to be working on a real stage." Thespians is an honorary dramatics society open to those students who accumulate thirty points by working in major and minor productions. In November, eight new Thespians were initiated. In January, Thespians reenacted the production of The Matchmaker. This comedy, set in New York in the 1800's, was the first Thespian show on the big stage. In spring members attended a play performance downtown, which was the club's initial field trip.

Forensics Enter Events, Contests

Sixteen students who were members of the Morton East forensics team travelled to Niles North High School in Skokie during November for their first individual events contest of the year. Miss D. A. Anderson, forensics adviser, said, "Morton was among the thirty-eight schools in competition at Niles."

Categories and divisions involved in the meet included: serious reading, comedy reading, prose, verse, original monologue, after dinner speeches, oratory competition, radio speaking, and declamation speeches. "The competition at Niles was one of the practice contests in which Morton students participated before they entered the district contests later in the year," stated Miss Anderson. Students who placed first in the district contests at Waukegan Township High School entered the state competition.

Art Club Takes Chicago Tours

Art Club took many architectural tours of Chicago in order to study. The members visited the Museum of Contemporary Art, private galleries, and Marina City, from which they viewed Chicago from the fiftieth floor. The club also provided decorations for Honor Society's Christmas dance. Members participated in the MSGA's hall decorating contest, and they entered a car in the homecoming parade.

"This year our membership decreased by twelve members, but the students now in the club are very sincere and dedicated," stated Mr. Chelz, club adviser. In order to attract students, Art Club planned a group project to build, decorate, or paint something unusual.

Club Gallops at Various Stables

Because the main interest of Saddle Club members is to develop riding skills, activities of the club centered around riding at various stables, such as Prince Crossing, Green Acres, and Lucky Circle. In mid-March, the club went on an outing to Marina City, where members went ice-skating. The club also participated in the Christmas hall decorating contest. In early spring the club scheduled an all-day ride in Wisconsin.

At weekly meetings, discussions usually centered around improvements for the club, future activities, and techniques of safe horseback riding. An interest in horses and riding is the only requirement for membership into Saddle Club, which has always been a popular club.

Members of the Photography Club enjoyed the use of the new facilities acquired through the expansion of the photography lab. Because of the increase of facilities, membership increased by twenty boys. At weekly meetings, Photo Club members participated in either projects of their own choice or those given to them by their adviser, Mr. E. R. Sturr. Through these projects members received enrichment in the field of photography. Some photos taken by club members were used in this year's freshmen M-Book. The only requirements for admission into the club are an interest in photography and familiarity with laboratory equipment.

To achieve photographic quality, boys use this machine to dry photos.

Swimmers Demonstrate Abilities

"A Dance Through The Ages" was the theme of this year's annual spring swim show. Since membership increased, most participants performed in either groups or duets. Advanced members displayed their talents in a few solos and also performed in teams. "During the first semester, the girls placed more emphasis on stunts and strokes, because they wanted to perfect them for the show," replied Mrs. L. Corwin, swimming directress of the club. "Then the members practiced their swim numbers during the second semester for another performance in May."

Since the club was under new leadership, the swimmers decided to change their club name, formerly entitled the Swim Club. Students submitted entries to Mrs. Corwin and to officers of the club. At a later date, members voted upon the new name, Morton Malibus.

Girls acquire techniques and skills by practicing their swim numbers.

Club Wins Hall Decorating Contest

First place winners of the MSGA Christmas hall decorating contest, Fencing Club members received twenty-five dollars, which was added to the club's treasury. At club meetings, members discussed business and then practiced fencing. According to Mr. J. S. Abbate, club adviser, "The main purpose of the Fencing Club is to promote the sport of fencing among Morton East students." Other activities of the club included a Christmas party and a spring picnic in LaGrange Park. The only requirement for membership is an interest in fencing. The club helped to promote the coordination skills of this upcoming sport. Membership was limited to twenty-five students, so that more attention was given each individual. "Everyone," said Mr. Abbate, "benefited from the limited membership."

Leaders Attend State Convention

Early last April, the Future Business Leaders of America attended their annual state convention in Springfield. Attractions during the weekend trip included demonstrations of the newest types of business equipment, a social hour of entertainment and dancing, and various contests, including spelling and public speaking. The club also gave an ice cream social to welcome its members. "Our girls held a candy sale," stated Mr. D. A. Smith and Mrs. E. L. Ciner, club advisers, "in which the proceeds were used to send gifts to the boys in Vietnam."

Future Teachers Visit Colleges

FTA visited numerous colleges in the neighboring areas. The places toured were Concordia, Elmhurst, and George Williams Colleges. The club had teachers from the Special Services and Language Arts divisions lecture about various training methods and necessary schooling information.

"A prize of $15 was awarded to our club," added Mrs. H. VanVoorhies, club sponsor, "because we won first place in the homecoming car decorating contest." FTA also held candy sales, bake sales, and membership drives, all of which seemed to be successful.

Astrologers View Fireball, Stars

Members of the Astronomy Club saw a phosphorescent blue-green object in the northern sky during the early part of October. "The club members had been observing Saturn and several double stars when the fireball was noticed," explained Mr. L. R. Horacek. "It appeared to be even brighter than the moon." In order to view these objects in outer space, members of the club used a powerful telescope. The boys also saw other natural phenomena, such as meteor showers and the recent eclipse of the moon.

The club planned to take a trip to Northwestern University to see the astronomy laboratory. Since they intended to get new pieces for their telescope and to build a new mound for it, they thought the field trip would prove valuable.

ECHO, New Name for Old Club

Sponsors who helped develop student interest in basic household techniques, such as cooking and sewing, changed the former Home Economics Club name to ECHO. According to Mrs. D. Reynolds, one of the club advisers, "ECHO was a unique idea which did not affiliate with any other national organization."

Guest speakers from cooking schools visited meetings to give helpful home economics information to club members. Also, the club held a fortune cookie sale which increased ECHO's funds. ECHO is open to all students, including boys, who are welcomed into the club.

Future Nurses Give Assistance

Great Lakes Naval Hospital in Glenview was one of the many places the Medical Careers club toured. The girls learned techniques of nursing and spent the day helping the patients. In June, the club took another field trip to the Registered Nursing Home in Berwyn. Here, members gave the patients a party.

For the first time in the club's history, Medical Careers entered a car in the homecoming parade. "Since the treasury and the membership increased, we were able to invite many guest speakers to our meetings," explained Mrs. B. Roberts, club adviser. The conversationalists included Mr. John Cain from West Suburban Hospital; Capt. Andrea Blaskovitch, an army nurse; Mrs. Marie Nelson, an industrial nurse; and a speaker from the Junior College Dental Assisting Program.

The annual banquet held at Manny Pearls was the high point of Medical Careers activities. As an added feature, film strips were shown by the Michael Reese Hospital and the Nurses' Association.

DE Attends Series of Workshops

Beginning on Friday, March first, members of Distributive Education attended a series of State Leadership Workshops held at Peoria for two days. The workshops included contests, banquets, dances, breakfasts, and luncheons. The purpose was to compare the activities and progress of students from various schools who were also involved in Distributive Education.

DE students from the northwestern section of the Chicago area also attended the Leadership Convention held at Proviso East. This convention included workshops on fashion retailing, personnel, self defense for women, and store security. Other activities of the Distributive Education Club were a splash party, candy sale, and a field trip.

VOO Has Banquet for Employers

Vocational Office Occupations held their annual Employer-Employee Banquet on May 21st at the Mar Lac House in Oak Park. Students invited their employers to express their appreciation for help given to them during the past year. Guest speaker at the banquet was Laticia Balrichd, former social secretary of President and Mrs. Kennedy. Other speakers included Ambassador Clare Booth Luce and David Burse.

On April third, VOO sponsored an orientation tea for students and their parents. The purpose was to give students information on how to apply for jobs. Club meetings gave students information on business speaking and various qualities expected of students on the job.

Honor Society members work to help complete the club's homecoming float.

Societies Sponsor Holiday Dance

"An Old Christmas by Candlelight" was the theme of the Christmas dance held by the Junior and Senior Honor Societies. Decorations consisting of a fireplace, Christmas tree, and chandeliers lit with real candles created a romantic atmosphere. Table arrangements of candles and fir branches added the final touch. Punch and cookies were served, and the Mauve Affair provided the music. The highlight of the evening came when Mr. Wintering arrived dressed as Santa Claus.

Because both the Junior and Senior Honor Societies share basically the same interests and activities, the two clubs held their meetings together. This year the Junior Honor Society was under the new leadership of Mr. G. Peterson while Mr. R. S. Hughes continued to advise the Senior Honor Society. Together the two organizations sponsored a taffy apple sale, a splash party, and a Dunes trip. The clubs continued to offer their services in tutoring and in the publication of the honor roll lists. In April the two societies worked together to sponsor their annual banquet, which was open to all Honor Society members and students who made the first semester honor roll.

Czech Members Attend Opera

Czech Club members attended the United States film premiere of the Czech opera, "Rusalka," held at the Lyric Opera House. The club participated in the homecoming parade, and it also entered the hall decorating contest held at Christmas time. As another project, Czech Club had a bake sale which proved to be very successful.

In an effort to unite the various language clubs, the Czech Club held Tiddly Winks' contests. Because of this, members have become known as the "Bouncing Czechs." During the spring, the club had a houby hunt and went on a Memorial Day picnic. There was also a splash party and a bowling party for club members and their friends.

Russian Club Distributes Paper

Under the supervision of Mrs. R. L. Turner, the Russian Club distributed a classroom newspaper to all Russian classes. Written in Russian and English, this paper included jokes and club news. It also contained Russian stories and some of the characteristics of Russian life.

During club meetings, members learned Russian folk tunes. Members also contributed interesting information concerning Russian culture. The Russian Club took a trip to the Clark Theater in the Loop to view Russian films. During the Christmas season, the club members participated in the hall decorating contest. The club did its best to learn more about Russian people and their customs.

Members Unite Language Clubs

Through the organization of meetings involving all of the language clubs, French Club tried to get the various clubs working together. All language parties, together with the monthly meetings, were sponsored by the French Club in order to introduce the cultures of other countries to the different club members.

A trip to a French restaurant and a trip to the Art Institute were more activities of French Club. At the Art Institute, members viewed the works of famous Frenchmen, such as Monet, Manet, and Gauguin. Members also saw French films with English subtitles. Because part of the Easter trip to Europe this year was to the French Riviera, Mr. P. H. Weisse, club sponsor, provided a background for the trip by showing slides of France.

Italians Display Christmas Spirit

To help awaken Christmas spirit, Italian Club held an informal Christmas party where members sang carols in Italian, German, and English. Refreshments were served afterwards to members and their guests. Beginning with the second semester, Italian Club began to hold their meetings every other week instead of every week due to a decline in membership. To help increase the size of the club, membership was also open to junior college students.

Italian Club also held a bake sale which was prepared entirely by the students. The sale featured Italian bakery, which helped to make it a big success. Club members went to an Italian restaurant and saw Italian movies. "The club concluded this year with their annual dunes trip," stated Miss M. T. Sarandrea, club adviser.

Club Attends Vienna Boys' Choir

During the year German Club members had the opportunity to see the Vienna Boys' Choir. Club members were also able to speak to the choir boys in German backstage after the concert. This year each German class participated in the annual German Club Christmas program. The objective of this was to help German students become better acquainted with the customs of Germany. Nora Meskauskas, a junior college student who vacationed in Austria, lectured to German Club members at one of their meetings this year about her experiences at the Austrian school for students in Zillertal. Other activities of the club were geared toward learning folk dancing and acquiring additional knowledge about Germany.

Latin Club Holds Roman Banquet

In early spring Latin Club held a Roman banquet. Club members sang and conversed in Latin at the banquet. Roman delicacies were also featured at this event. Other activities which kept club members busy this year were entering the Christmas hall decorating contest, having a booth at the school carnival of clubs, and holding two bake sales. At weekly meetings club members discussed their yearly activities, and they also translated poems written by Ovid. "Latin Club," stated Mr. H. T. Janka, adviser, "is open to any student who has an interest in learning about the culture and classical heritage of Rome." Mr. Janka is confident that these varied activities will increase interest in the Latin Club.

Club Adds Items to Trophy Case

Spanish Club members purchased Spanish swords, which were used as the new display materials of the club for the third floor display case. By sponsoring a bake sale, Spanish Club was able to buy Spanish books written for members' beneficial use and enjoyment. This was the first year that the club had any type of pin, which was given to the club's most active members. The club also entered a booth in the spring carnival.

At their annual Christmas party, Spanish Club members successfully attempted to promote Spanish culture by having a pinata. Friends of members were allowed to attend. At a later date in the year, a speaker from the Spanish Tourist Office of the Midwest spoke to club members. The club also started plans for a trip to South America during next year's Easter vacation.

Spanish Club bake sale is successful through students' participation.

Mr. D. C. Lundeen was chosen by the Morton Music Department to temporarily fill the position of Assistant Director of Bands. Mr. Lundeen came to the department just after football season, at which time the marching band was divided into the concert and the varsity bands. He took charge of the varsity band, which performed several numbers at both concerts, including highlights from Fiddler on the Roof.

Besides the winter and spring performances, the bands played a few show tunes and concert excerpts at Pancake Day, a fund-raising event for the department. The concert band also performed before the student-body in February to promote their concert.

Along with preparing for the public concerts, the combined bands did much to promote school spirit. During the fall, the Mustang Marching Band entertained at half-time and paraded at homecoming. In the winter, a pep band was formed to play at home basketball games. A small detachment of players marched in the "O"-hour pep rallies in the cafe and supported the cheerleaders with the school song.

Tschaikowsky's Symphony Played

Highlighting the winter concert, the concert band, under the direction of Mr. J. J. Frantik, performed three out of the four movements of Tschaikowsky's Symphony No. 4 in F Minor. This is the first time a high school band has ever attempted such a difficult and exhaustive program, but the band did an outstanding job. This year's concert soloists from East were Michele Chlapecka on clarinet, Bill Camp-house on cornet, and Kathy Kirkwood on flute. These same three along with French horn player Daniel Busta attended the All-State performances at the District auditions. Miss Kirkwood also received the additional honor in being selected, along with a West band member, to travel to the University of Illinois symposium for chamber music. Kathy was among fifty high school students chosen on a state-wide basis.

The band held its own solo contest this year at the West building. All concert band personnel played solos of form ensembles and performed before qualified judges. All IHSA rules were observed, except the memorization requirement.

Choral Groups Entertain Clubs

Morton's Choral Department performed for many outside organizations this year. The sophomore girls' chorus and the senior girls' chorus performed at MacNeal Hospital during the holiday season. Mrs. J. Kassner, their directoress, said, "The girls received much satisfaction out of this undertaking." The Aeolian Choir, under Mr. G. DeLoreia, sang for the Rotary Club and the Lions Club at their Christmas parties. Both of the choral groups performed for the faculty Christmas dinner held at the East cafeteria.

For the second time, all the choruses performed as one body during the Christmas concert. Their selection for the production was "The Christmas Story" by Ron Nelson, who is an Illinois composer. The selections were accompanied by brass and percussion ensembles.

The spring concert was highlighted by a presentation of the musical Camelot. Also, during the spring, ensembles from the Aeolian Choir performed at the outlying grammar schools. While there, auditions of the grammar school students were made. Plans for next year include the making of Aeolian Choir and Girls' Chorus into major subjects.

District Orchestra Gives Concert

On February 3, the Morton District Symphony Orchestra presented their winter concert conducted by Mr. T. Radek. The program began with "Toccata" by Frescobaldi. Other numbers included Brahms' "Symphony #4 in E Minor" and "Dancas De Panama" by Still. "Les Preludes" by Liszt concluded the program.

While orchestra members acquired practice and experience in front of a formal audience, they filled the need of accompaniment at many of Morton's formal ceremonies at both Morton East and West, as well as at Morton Junior College. Members also participated in solo and ensemble competition at which various awards were won. Throughout the year, orchestra members performed classical musical compositions of time-honored composers.

Increasing accumulation of knowledge requires constant changes in methods of teaching and learning. Students have benefited from the improvements in class atmosphere since 1918.

Classes

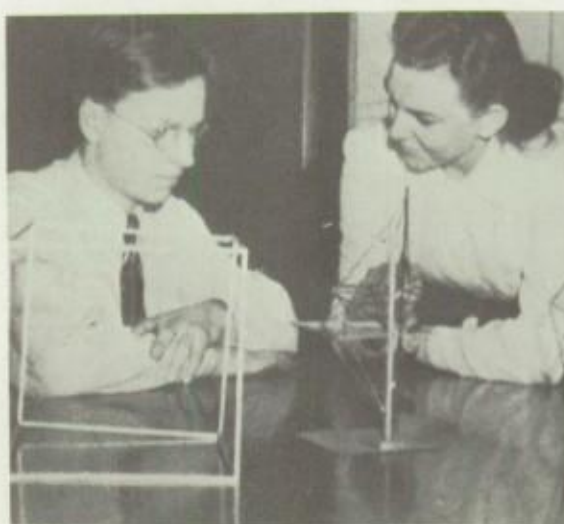

Many classes that were once offered at Morton are now outdated and are therefore no longer taught.

Cheers and their presentation change but not so the spirit of our cheerleaders.

Math and photography have been in existence since the school was founded.

Numerous fine leaders have graduated from Morton East High School.

Extra-Curricular Activities Help To Broaden Students' Interests

Learning is no longer the unilateral process of 1918. During the last fifty years, the average class has not simply increased in size but also in basic outlook. Whereas in the early 1900's, a student's principal objective for going to school was to learn specific events and ideas, now a student can question facts presented to him and, if need be, formulate his own conclusions.

Students now participate in more extra-curricular activities than in any of the preceding fifty years, thereby broadening their scope of interests. Those students who work with school clubs, who help run the Morton Student Government, and who tutor fellow students through the National Honor Society enrich their classroom work.

Selecting a proper diet is essential to cooking.

With the completion, early this fall, of the new annex, students will never again have to tolerate overcrowded gym classes and inadequate facilities.

Even in the '20's, secretarial and other office courses were offered to many Morton girls eager to enter the working world.

Frogs and reptiles are important to the biology student learning about life.

Morton, realizing the need for a strong industrial training program, has been a leader in this area of education.

New Facilities, New Methods Help Better Classroom Rapport

Morton students have seen welcomed progress within the past few decades in classroom procedures. The methods of education have changed, enabling a greater number of students to come in contact with more varied curricula; also, years of research and development have brought new ideas into the classroom, along with improvements in techniques and materials.

A look into past facilities and modes of teaching makes evident the changes that have taken place in the classroom. These have been not only the obvious advancements, such as the addition of a new building, but also the more subtle changes that are slowly but continually happening, like a more liberal atmosphere in most classes and a new kind of student-teacher relationship.

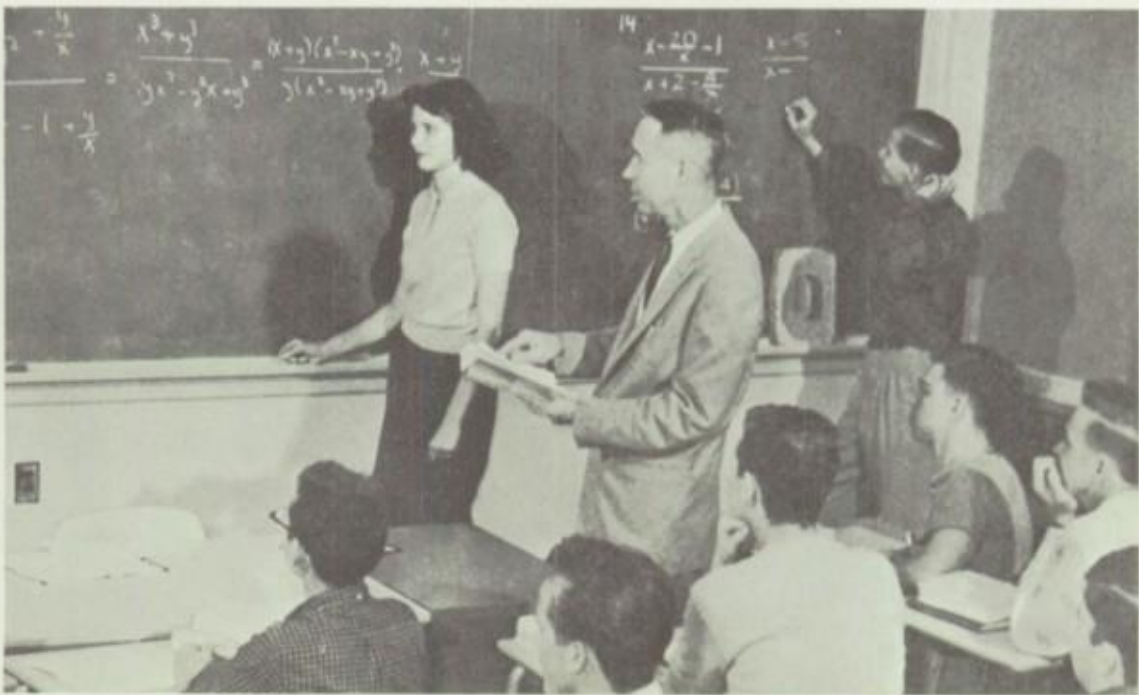

Although styles are constantly changing and altering students' appearances, basic sewing and tailoring techniques have generally remained in use.

Collecting data is an integral part of experimentation.

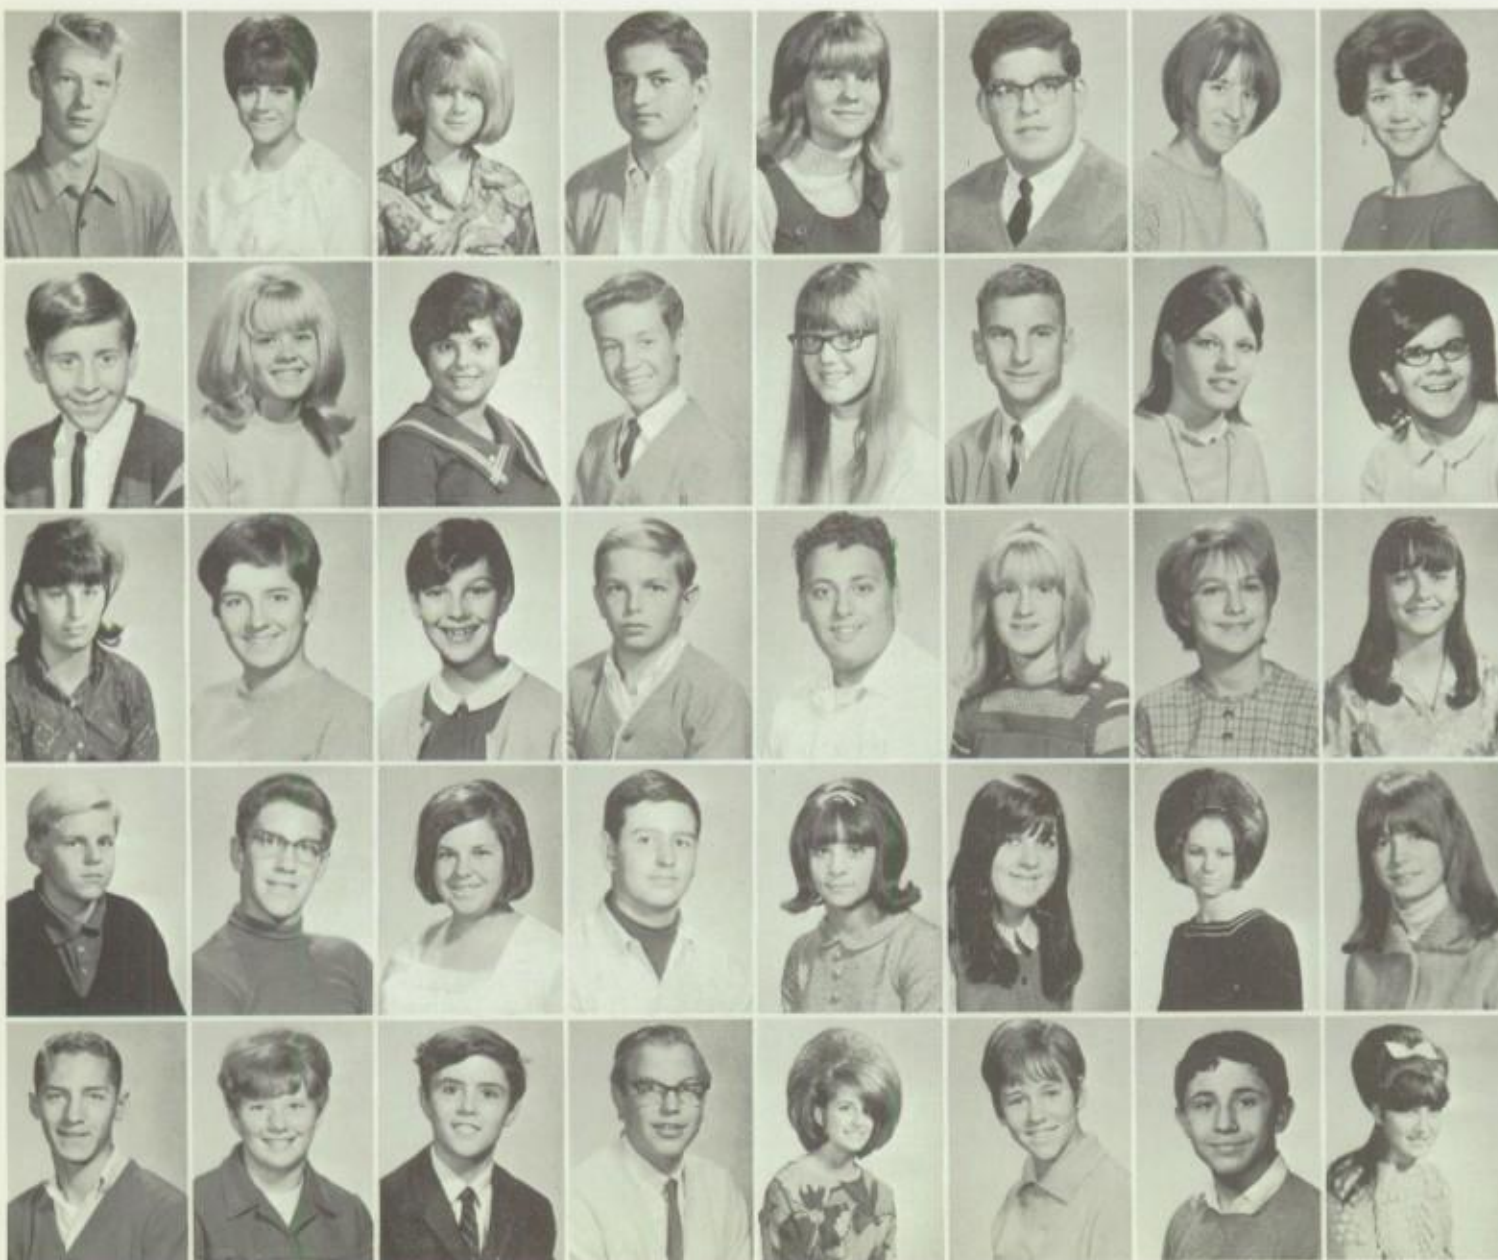

The curiosity to find out "why" has always been present in the minds of students.

Editors Review Past Year

What makes one year different from all preceding years?

*What makes this '67-'68 school year
unique?*

Morton underwent structural change through a new physical education complex.

*For the first time in five years
a determined team*

won their homecoming game.

And this year our Mortonian Annual, celebrating its golden, fiftieth anniversary, recalled the past through the "Golden Chronicle of Progress."

Students spend four short years at Morton.

*For most, these years are happy;
for others, these years are a struggle.*

But all students share unforgettable memories of life at Morton.

*Without academics, activities, and sports
a school year would be incomplete.*

*But it is the students themselves who have made this year
unique.*

*Faces change each year—
freshmen, anxious and timid;
sophomores, relaxed and rowdy;
juniors, maturing and anticipating;
seniors, contemplating and planning, pondering over*

what future years will bring and what past years have brought.

*Through this yearbook
we have striven to catch a glimpse of one year at Morton.*

For us, it has been a very special year, different from all preceding ones.

*We show great pride in this,
the 1968 Mortonian Annual.*

Thanks Expressed to All Involved

Creating a yearbook from cover to cover is not an individual effort. Rather, it involves the combined efforts of an organized staff, a competent adviser, a capable photography company, and a reliable publishing company.

To Mr. Gus Jackson, our adviser, we give the heartiest thank you. His guidance and sincere interest to create a worthwhile yearbook have given us unlimited knowledge and valuable journalistic experience.

To all the section editors, staff photographers, and general staff members, we say thanks for an outstanding job. Without them, this yearbook would be non-existent. The long hours after school and faithful Saturday attendances will never be forgotten.

To Root Photographers, we express a sincere thank you. Their cooperation to develop pictures on time enabled us to meet many deadlines. Thank you also to the Taylor Publishing Company and their representative, Bernie Callahan. Our association with them has made this production the quality book it is.

To all you readers, who will eagerly inspect this yearbook, we can only hope it brings innumerable memories of life at Morton East High School.

Harry
Well photography
has been a real experience.
My Dad. What a carp. Browny
Steffanelli was cool wasn't it he.
Pignato's actions were cool if you know what I mean. Lots of luck in the future.
See you next year.

I am Kolbyak
